COMMITTEE WILL MAKE EARLY PLANS

Meeting Tonight to Outline Tentative
Arrangements for Corn, Live Stock and Poultry Show.

IS INITIATED BY FARMERS

Following Success of Corn Show Last Year, Agitation is Started for Broadening Its Scope.

Committees will meet tonight at seven o'clock in the county agent's office to make preliminary arrangements for a stock, poultry, corn and home economics show in Rushville this fall. The date will probably be selected tonight. The latter part of November or the first of December is favored.

Following the success of the corn show last year it was deemed advisable to broaden the scope of the event and take in live stock, for which Rush county is famed. The increase in the production of registered hogs in this county was responsible for the movement designed to combine the corn and live stock show.

It is also believed that classes will be made for poultry as this is an industry which has grown rapidly in the county during the past few years under the stimulus of advanced methods, such as the culling of flocks, that has resulted in increased revenue for poultry raisers.

The home economics section of the corn show last year was a very great success and it will undoubtedly be included in the show this year. Women of the county responded in fine fashion and brought out a large showing of bread, butter, cakes and other products of their kitchens.

The movement for a show on a larger scale was started by the Rush County Farmers association, the directors of which have already appropriated $500 as a basis for financing the proposition. The farmers invited Rushville business men to co-operate in giving the show and committees have been appointed from the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs to meet with the farmers committee to start the movement.

The balance of the money required to give the show will be raised, it is presumed by public subscription. Close to $1,500 was posted in prizes last year at the corn show alone.

On account of taking in a wider range, it is regarded as probable that more money will be required this year to finance the proposition. All

STATE HIGHWAY IN BAD STATE OF REPAIR

Many Complaints Made Regarding
Condition of Indianapolis Pike
By Automobile Drivers

WORST EAST OF ARLINGTON

Automobile drivers who have gone to Indianapolis recently report that the state road between here and the state capital is in a bad state of repair, especially between Rushville and Arlington. The condition of the road has been the cause for much unfavorable comment among Rushville motorists for the last few weeks and it is probable that some complaints will be lodged with Lawrence Lyons, director of the state highway commission unless some work is done on it soon.

It is reported that the road is in its present state of bad repair due to neglect. It is stated that the regular practice of dragging the road after a rain has not been followed, which is largely responsible for the surface of the road becoming bumpy so that no speed can be made with safety in an automobile.

The road is not in the excellent condition that it was during the summer, beyond Arlington, but this is due in many places to the work which is being done in widening the highway. Fences are being moved back in most places in order to make the highway conform with state highway commission requirements as to width.

IS FINED ON TWO CHARGES

Elmer Murphy Indicted in Three Counts by Grand Jury

Elmer Murphy was arrested this morning by Sheriff Jones on three grand jury indictments returned by the investigators at their last session. When arraigned he entered a plea to two charges and the third case was nollied upon motion of the state. He was fined $5 and costs on a charge of public intoxication and $10 and cost on a charge of unlawfully operating an automobile while intoxicated. The indictment charging unlawfully operating a motor vehicle was nollied.

This arrest accounts for three of the twenty indictments returned, and it is expected that further arrests will be made soon.

CHECKS UP PLANS FOR COUNTY MEET

Odd Fellows Committee Gets Reports
Indicating Gathering Wednesday
Will be Success.

ARRANGEMENTS BEING MADE

One Thousand Expected to be in
Torch Light Parade at Night—
Grand Officers Will be Here.

At a meeting of the Odd Fellows county executive committee here last evening, reports were received from each lodge in the county and details of the meeting were discussed. The committeemen expressed themselves as being highly pleased by the reports received, indicating that all the lodges in the county are working hard to make the undertaking a success.

In order to provide entertainment for the Rebekahs and the families of Odd Fellows during the afternoon and after the parade, the Modern Woodman hall has been secured and a committee will be present there to receive and welcome them. A program is being arranged for the evening entertainment and all the Rebekah lodges in the county have been asked to contribute talent for this purpose.

It is also announced that a local church organization will serve supper in anticipation of the large attendance beginning promptly at 5 p. m., so that all may be cared for before the parade.

All the lodges are urging that every member that is able march, and torches have been ordered for one thousand participants, planning for

SUBSCRIBERS FAVOR COUNTRY CLUB SITE

Prompt and Favorable Response Being Made to Letter Sent Out
Thursday by Committee

MEETING TUESDAY EVENING

Prompt response is being made to the letters sent out yesterday by a committee of the country club board of directors, seeking to determine whether former subscribers to stock in a club here are still favorable to the proposition.

One member of the committee said today that answers are coming back rapidly and that all of them are to the effect that the agreement made a year ago last August to take stock in a country club at $100 a share, will be lived up to at this time.

A meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock next Tuesday evening in the court house assembly room to determine whether there are enough stock subscribers to insure a successful club, and if so, to adopt by-laws and make plans to start a club at once.

The proposed site, a tract of sixty-one acres one and one-half miles northwest of the city, has met with general approval and is regarded as the best suited for a club and the best located of any to be found in the vicinity of Rushville.

JOINT INSTITUTES WILL BE MONTHLY

First of Series for Teachers of County Will Take Place in Court House Saturday

ON EVERY THIRD SATURDAY

Indiana University and State Normal
Instructors Will Conduct
Courses All Year

The first of a series of joint township teachers institutes will be held at the court house Saturday, with Indiana university educators as instructors.

The teachers of every township in the county with the exception of Orange and Walker will participate. The institutes will be held the third Saturday of each month during the school year and the rural education course has been arranged so that teachers who wish credit in the state normal for the work covered may obtain it by passing an examination at the end of the course.

The instructors will be Dean H. L. Smith of the school of education, Indiana university; Prof. George E. Schlafer of the department of physical education, Indiana university, and Prof. Frank Senour of the state university English department.

The new plan is a departure from former customs in this county. Heretofore the teachers of the county have met in joint institute only once a year, at the beginning of the school and during the year township institutes have been held.

The group meeting plan will be followed at each session, the following program having been arranged for the first meeting:

Morning Session

9:00 Dean H. L. Smith—Educational Measurements. Class meets in Teachers' Examination room, A. R. Protsman, Chairman.

9:00—Prof. Geo. E. Schlafer—Playground Methods and Management. Class meets in Assembly room, Blythe Seales, Chairman.

9:00—The Classroom Teacher—Dynamic Americanism.

Group meets in Commissioners' Room, W. E. Wagoner, Chairman.

Afternoon Session

1:00 All teachers of 1 or 2 room school meet in Commissioners' room.

1:15 Prof. Frank Senour—English. Class meets in Teachers' Examination room, C. M. DeMumbrum, Chairman.

1:15 Musical Appreciation—Sarah I. McConnell.

Our Living Language.
A Code of Ethics for the Teaching Profession.

Group meets in Assembly room, W. E. Wagoner, Chairman.

The course in "Playground Methods and Managements" includes the study of many games, singing and otherwise; also folk games that are suitable both for the school room and the playground. Some theoretical discussion concerning the nature purpose and function of the play, as well as the history of the playground, will be included, and worthwhile school room gymnastic activities will be covered.

The teachers who take the English course under Prof. Senour will have the privilege of designating which of three courses they want—romantic period, Victorian poetry, American literature or nineteenth century prose. This will be determined at the first session and the majority favoring any one subject will decide the question.

Beginning in November, Prof. McBrien, head of the rural education department at Indiana State Normal, will give a course in rural education.

Pear Tree In Bloom

Another freak of nature may be seen in the back yard at the home of Bert Orme in East Third street, where a pear tree is in bloom, with the top blossoms being frost bitten, but the protected blossoms are out in full bloom. Several people in Rush county have reported the second crop of blossoms, including a grapevine which has developed large sized grapes.

ABSENT VOTERS TO VOTE IN ELECTION

Applications Are Now Being Mailed
Out to Those People Who Can't Vote in Person

CITY CLERK HAS THE BLANKS

It is Expected That Between 200 and 300 People Will Cast Ballots
Through Mail

Absent voters in the city of Rushville are now beginning to make application for ballots, which will be voted upon for the city election to be held November 8, and in a few days the official ballots will be of the Press and ready to be mailed out to those who will not be able to go to the polls on election day.

Blankets for application for absent voters ballots will be mailed upon request by City Clerk Earl E. Osborne, and upon receipt of the application properly filled out, the official ballot will be sent, and it is to be so voted when returned here to Mr. Osborne.

During the primary election last spring, there were 133 people who voted in the election under the provisions of the absent voters law, and it is expected that there will be almost double that amount this fall.

The order for printing the ballots will be given over to the printer in a few days, so that the ballots can be printed and ready for mailing to applicants living at a distance.

Any one who will be absent from Rushville on November 8, is eligible for the absent voters ballots, or any one who cannot go to the polls for any reason on that day, may make application for the ballot in advance, and it will be voted in the proper precinct on election day.

The time for filing petitions, or for withdrawal, or for changes in the list of candidates expired last Saturday, and the board of election commissioners, consisting of City Clerk Earl Osborne, Verne W. Norris representing the Republican party and Guy Mulbarger, the democratic party, will meet in a few days and arrange the ballots for printing.

There will be two city tickets in the field, Republican and Democrat, and each party has a full list of candidates for all of the offices to be voted upon.

FARMER IS FOLLOWED BY MYSTERIOUS DEEDS

Fire of Unknown Origin Destroyed
New Home of Wesley York and Stock Was Poisoned

HOME IS IN RUSH COUNTY

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the two story frame dwelling owned and occupied by Wesley York, three miles north of Andersonville Tuesday night about 8:30 o'clock, and the loss which is only partly covered with insurance, will amount to several thousand dollars. The family had left home and the residence was discovered in flames by the neighbors and had gained considerable headway, only a few articles being saved.

The house was comparatively a new one, and Mr. York purchased the farm only six weeks ago. Eighteen bushels of clover seed also was destroyed by the fire.

An investigation may be made into the affair as it is reported that three weeks ago Mr. York lost a valuable horse and a quantity of chickens by feeding poisoned corn. An examination led to the discovery that paris green had been placed in the corn by someone, and the origin of the fire is said to be equally as mysterious.

The farm and dwelling is located in Rush county.

RED MEN TO MEET

The Red Men lodge will meet Monday night next week instead of the regular meeting on Tuesday, on account of the state meeting in Indianapolis being held on Tuesday. All members are asked to remember the change in the meeting night.

IMPROVEMENT IS OBSERVED U. S. Chamber of Commerce Finds Unemployment Being Wiped Out

(By United Press)

Washington, Oct. 14.—A decided improvement in the industrial situation as compared with the summer period has taken place, the United States Chamber of Commerce announced today.

A number of southern cities reported unemployment wiped out as result of the recent rise in cotton while 119 local chambers in 35 states reported definite steps taken to relieve unemployment.

Following the emergency program mapped out by the unemployment conference, a general movement for splitting time in factories and other steps to help the jobless are under way.

DEFINITE STEPS MADE FOR PEACE

Announcement Made When Sub Committees Reported to Irish Conference Delegates

TODAY'S SESSION IS SHORT

Both Sides Agree it is Futile to Try to Fix Responsibility For Violation of Truce

By ED L. KEEN

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
London, Oct. 14.—Definite progress towards peace has been made by the Irish conference.

This announcement was made today when the sub committees reported to the delegates at 10 Downing street, the result of their conversations yesterday. Arthur Griffith and the other Sinn Fein plenipotentiaries drove to the premiers residence a few minutes before 11 o'clock. Only a small crowd of Irish sympathizers was on hand to greet them. After today's session the work of the conference will consist largely in negotiations between sub committees.

Both sides agreed it was futile to try to fix responsibility for violations of the truce and agreed to center their attention on making the truce effective in the future.

Today's session lasted less than two hours and the delegates adjourned at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The next meeting of the conference was scheduled for 4:30 Monday afternoon Oct. 17. The time was arranged so as not to conflict with the ceremonies incident to the decoration of the unknown warriors tomb by American Ambassador Harvey.

Sinn Fein headquarters explained that the statement attributed to Michael Collins, after yesterday's session, ("We are not coming back") was, if made, "only Mickey's little joke."

The sub committees, it was said today, have made definite progress towards an understanding regarding observance of the truce.

Despite the official optimism, however, it was felt the demand of Sinn Fein for release of the prisoners would cause difficulties before the conference had proceeded much further.

Preliminary discussions, it was said today, might be cleared up by the first of next week, and the practical work of hammering out an amicable Irish solution might be expected to commence Monday or Tuesday.

CLASS ADOPTION PLANNED

Modern Woodmen Make Arrangements For Pig Roast Nov. 17

The Modern Woodmen are making extensive arrangements for the next class adoption which will be held on November 17, at which time a pig roast will also be featured. The "porker" will be donated by William A. Alexander, and it is expected that a large class will be taken into the order on that night.

Work in the Beneficiary degree will be given one candidate at their meeting on next Thursday night, it was also announced today following their meeting of last night.

ULTIMATUM FROM RAILROAD WORKERS

Will Strike October 30 Unless Negotiations on Wages and Working Conditions Are Reopened

DEFY ISSUED TO EXECUTIVES

Railroad Managers, In Session in Chicago, Proceed With Plans to Cut Wages in Face of Strike

Rail Situation At a Glance.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—The railroad crisis at a glance:

Heads of the railroad brotherhoods, the most powerful labor unions in the country have issued a strike call for October 30. The strike will come unless employers reopen negotiations on wages and working conditions. The call was issued after a count of strike votes disclosed that the majority of the 2,000,000 railroad workers were in favor of a walkout.

Railroad executives met in Chicago to recommend that wages be cut approximately 10 percent so that freight rates may be reduced. The decision to ask the United States Labor Board for another cut in wages, in addition to the 12 percent slash effective last July was made in face of the strike vote of the employees.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Rail workers hurled an ultimatum at their employers today by deciding to strike Oct. 30 unless negotiations on wages and working conditions were reopened.

Railroad executives who met here today defied the most powerful labor unions in the nation by proceeding with their plans to slash wages in the face of a strike.

The decision to strike was reached by heads of the railroad brotherhoods early today following days of conference.

According to the plans mapped out by the Union heads, men on all lines will not be called out at once. The nation's transportation system has been divided into ten groups for strike purposes.

Workers on the roads comprising one group will be called out first. Then if the management refuses to confer with men in view of bettering wages and working conditions workers in the next group will be called out and so on down the line until every one of the 2,000,000 union workers have deserted their posts

ONE DAY CAMPAIGN FOR SALVATION ARMY

Wednesday, November 2. Set Aside
For Special Effort to Raise Money For Local Corps

HOME SERVICE FUND SHORT

Plans have been devised for a one day campaign Wednesday, November 2, to "clean up" the Salvation Army home service fund in Rush county, which failed to reach the quota assigned to this county by several hundred dollars last May.

The local corps of the Army is in dire need of money with prospects of many calls for relief during the winter. Less than $500 was raised in the home service campaign last spring. This has long since been exhausted in the local work and in addition state headquarters has supplied the Rushville officers with more than $100 to carry on the work here.

Members of the county advisory board met with Envoy Ellis and Ensign Ross Conway of Indianapolis, special efforts secretary, Friday evening and decided to put on a one-day money-raising effort in order to carry the Rushville corps through the winter.

An intensive canvass will be made on that day in Rushville and in the towns of the county. Local workers will have the assistance of several Salvation Army officers who will be brought here for the occasion.

RAIL SHOP MEN WIN A VICTORY

United States Railroad Labor Board
Refuses Plea of Executives For Piece Work Basis

WORK BY HOUR TO CONTINUE

No Violation of Orders if Employers
and Employees Reach Agreement
For Piece Work

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Railroad shop workers today won a sweeping victory before the United Railroad Labor Board.

The Board handed down a decision refusing to approve of the petition of railroad executives that all shop work be placed on a piece work basis of pay, instead of an hourly rate.

The Northwestern Railroad, acting with other lines had asked for abolishment of the principle of paying straight time for work in shops. It had been one of the most bitterly contested cases before the Labor Board.

The board held the men should be paid on an hourly basis and eight hours shall constitute a work day.

However, if the carriers and the employees agree that the work shall be paid for on a piece basis, it will not be a violation of the board's order.

The board upheld the railroads contention that shop workers should be forced to undergo a physical examination to determine whether or not they are fit to do the work. This also has been a bitterly contested point between the railroads and the Unions.

The seniority rights of employees must be upheld, the board announced except in cases where they leave one kind of work on their own request and engage in another class of labor with the same company.

Other rules promulgated by the Board included:

One, two, or three shifts may be used in shops, the starting time and unch time being adjusted by mutual agreement.

Employees working on Sunday, must be allowed to put in a full day unless released at their own request.

Shop trains must be kept in a safe, clean and sanitary conditions and must be run as near schedule time as possible.

MUST NOT DROP NEWBERRY CASE

Administration Leaders in Senate
Notified They Can't Consider
Contest Closed.

TO-FORCE ACTION ON REPORT

BY LAWRENCE MARTIN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Oct. 14.—The Newberry case must not be dropped. This was the notice served today on administration leaders in the senate by a number of progressive Republicans who said they had information indicating that the party leaders counted the celebrated Michigan election case closed.

The progressives, who include Kenyon, Morris, Johnson LaFollette and others, intend to join the democratic senators if necessary to force action in the open senate upon the reports filed by the committee that investigated charges that Newberry spent too much money in getting elected in 1918.

Republican leaders have virtually informed Newberry that the sweeping exoneration he obtained in the majority report of the committee, is about all he need expect in the way of action for a long time at any rate. Democrats, who filed minority reports criticizing Newberry and the committee will seek an opportunity of calling up the reports for discussion and action in the senate.

The republican progressives intend to vote against seating Newberry. There may be enough of them in combination with the democrats, to unseat him, administration leaders realize.

Indianapolis, Oct. 14.—William Graves of Elkhart went free from a three months' jail sentence and a $300 fine today under a supreme court decision holding the use of the word "or" instead of "and" in the affidavit sufficient cause for reversing the Elkhart Superior court. The affidavit charged Graves with unlawfully keeping liquor "with the intent to unlawfully sell, barter, give away or otherwise dispose of the same."

EX-TREASURERS WILL BE SUED

E. J. Brundage, Attorney General,
Prepares Suits For Accounting
In State of Illinois

GOVERNOR SMALL IN LIST

Will be Asked to Make Accounting
For Interest Received on State
Funds During Terms

(By United Press)

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Attorney General Edward J. Brundage today stated he was preparing suits to compel four former Illinois state treasurers to make an accounting for the interest they received on state funds during their terms.

The four are: Governor Len Small, who is under indictment for alleged embezzling of state funds; Lieutenant Governor Sterling also under indictment; Auditor of public accounts Russell and William J. Ryan, Jr. The suits when prepared will be filed in Sangamon county courts.

According to the suits being drawn up, the bondsmen of each of the four former treasurers will be made defendants in the action according to Brundage.

The bills will not stipulate amounts, it was stated, but will be in the form of suits of discovery.

Following the suits if it is found that any of the treasurers failed to account for every penny that was entrusted to them during their incumbency, further action will be taken the attorney general said.

According to Brundages, he was prepared to file their suits some months ago, when he was informed by State Treasurer Edward Miller of the $10,000,000 purchase of Packers notes which led to the indictment of the governor and others on charges of embezzlement.

New York Stocks

New York, Oct. 14.—Threats of a railroad strike Oct. 30, had an immediate effect on the New York stock market.

Rails were unsettled at the opening.

Equipments were firm. Most of the oils showed a firm tone during early trading.

Pan American was one exception and was offered in large blocks down to 40 1/2, a new low on the decline. Mexican Petroleum however, was up 1 at 92. There seemed to be some profit taking in Cosden. Pacific oil made a new high for the month at 41 1/2, but then sold fractionally. Steels were heavy and Republic made an early low at 48 1/2 off nearly a point net.

After the early decline in steels the whole list hardened. Most of the domestic oils got into new high ground after ten o'clock. Mex Pete recovers above 93. This stock loaned at a premium of 1-16 per cent last night and is loaning flat today. For the first time the dividend was passed, American Chemical showed signs of a weakness selling down to 33. After the dividend was passed the stock had advanced about 10 points.

The list was irregular at the opening of the stock exchange today. Opening prices included: Central Leather 26 3/4 up 1/4; Mexican Pete 92 up 1/4; U. S. Steel 78 1/2 off 1/4; Penna 36 unchanged; Beth B. 53 1/2 off 5-8; American Sugar 53 3/4 off 3/4; Studebaker 71 off 1/4; Republic Iron and Steel 49 1/2 unchanged; Asphalta 53 1/4 off 1/4; Texas Co. 39 1/2 off 1/2; Baldwin 87 unchanged; Sinclair 21 1/2 up 1/8; Pan American 40 1/2 off 1/4; Southern Pac 77 3/4 unchanged.

DEPLORES HARDING LETTER

Sen. Borah Regrets What President
Wrote About Arms Parley.

(By United Press)

Washington, Oct. 14.—President Harding's letter declaring disarmament out of the question at this time, the national enthusiasm over the is an unfortunate attempt to dampen coming international conference, Senator Borah said today.

Borah, author of the original disarmament resolution in the Senate, declared that men were sent to prison during the war for disparaging utterances.

"This conference is more important in some ways than the war," said Borah, and the people should not be led to expect little or nothing of it.

TWO SUITS INVOLVE NOTES FEUD BREAKS OUT ANEW

Are New Civil Actions Filed in Circuit Court Today

Two new law suits were filed in the circuit court today, one being with Michael Katsaros, plaintiff against Vern W. Bell, Edward C. Bell and Oneal Brothers, defendants, the action being on notes in which $1,124 judgment is demanded. Tittsworth and Tittsworth represented the plaintiff in the suit.

Walter E. Smith is plaintiff in a suit filed against Gifford Cook and Ed Laughlin, the action being on a note, which is alleged to be past due. The demand is $300. Gates Ketchum, attorney, represents the plaintiff in the case.

SIMMONS UNABLE TO RESUME STAND

Imperial Wizard of Ku Klux Klan
Confined to Bed With Severe
Attack of Laryngitis.

INVESTIGATION UNLIKELY

Doubt That Congressional Probe Will be Ordered Expressed When
House Committee Convenes

Washington, Oct. 14.—Imperial Wizard William Joseph Simmons was unable to resume the stand today before the House rules committee's inquiry into the Ku Klux Klan. His physicians said he was suffering from a severe attack of laryngitis and was confined to his bed. Simmons probably will not be able to appear before the committee until Monday.

Doubt that a congressional investigation of the Ku Klux Klan would be ordered was expressed today when the House rules committee convened.

Supporters of the movement to have Congress delve into the affairs and activities of the Klan made a final effort to prove three charges:

1—That the Klan used the mail to defraud.

2—That the Klan had committed overt acts against individuals and incited riots.

3—That the Klan had knowingly evaded income tax payments to the government.

Members of Simmons' party and persons who had assisted in the investigation of the Klan expressed the belief that the evidence presented thus far did not contain the foundation for a probe by congress.

Simmons, whose collapse late yesterday caused postponement of the hearing, admitted that his organization had not paid income taxes. He explained that the $10 paid by each Klansman on joining is a donation and is so designated in all the records. When the income tax law was enacted, he said he conferred with the internal revenue collector in Atlanta and was told his organization was not subject to the act.

"If you gentlemen find we are obligated to the government under this law, we will pay it if it takes our last dollar," he cried.

At another point in his remarks, he said he would destroy the Ku Klux Klan, if the committee thought the organization was not fit to live.

JITNEY BUS DRIVERS HELD

Several Arrested in Muncie For Violating New City Ordinance

(By United Press)

Muncie, Ind., Oct. 14.—Jitney bus drivers who had agreed that one of their number should be made the "goat" and stand arrest and trial for violation of the city ordinance which provides that jitney busses shall not be permitted to operate on streets where there are car lines, were taken by surprise this morning when not only Sumner Denny, the driver who had consented to be the "goat" but several others as well were arrested by the police. The drivers had made up a pool to pay the costs of one man's trial but now all are to appear in court Saturday. In the meantime all of the drivers are continuing to operate their busses while the police declare they will be arrested every day they continue in business.

BOWS-TO CONGRESS' WILL

Harding Consents to Commission to Refund Foreign Loans

(By United Press)

Washington, Oct. 14.—President Harding has bowed to the will of congress and has dropped his fight to have congress give Secretary of the Treasury Mellon authority to refund foreign loans. Instead, he said today he would be satisfied with a commission to look after the matter.

In the interest of securing prompt action from congress, Harding has given his sanction to the commission plan, it was announced, and early action is expected from congress.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost every one knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago, the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any druggist for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost. Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.—Advertisement.

HILLSDALE WOMAN TO BE SENTENCED OCT. 21

Mrs. Emma Richardson Burkett, 46. Convicted of Forging Name of Late Col. Roosevelt

JURY RECOMMENDS MERCY

(By United Press)
New York, Oct. 14.—Mrs. Emma Richardson Burkett, 46, Hillsdale, Indiana, will be sentenced Oct. 21 for forging the name of the late Colonel Theodore Roosevelt to a $69,900 note, Judge Tally, of General Sessions court said here today.
Mrs. Burkett was confined in a cell in the Tombs today. For the first time since she was arrested the woman broke down. Jail attendants said she wept continuously.
Mrs. Burkett was found guilty by a jury in General Sessions Court. The jury recommended mercy.
Louis Fabricant, attorney for Mrs. Burkett, sought a delay in the hope that he might be able to get Mrs. Burkett's husband and stepson to come east and testify in her behalf. Judge Tally in refusing the request, declared little could be expected of a husband who would leave his wife in jail three months without offering assistance.

ALTRUISTIC CLUB TO SPREAD INTO EAST

Progressive Business Club Opens National Convention at Modesto, California Today

PRESIDENT DELIVERS SPEECH

(By United Press)
Modesto, Cal., Oct. 14.—Promise of "stability, confidence and progress" in business for the incoming year was held out today at the opening session of the national convention of the Progressive Business Club by Roy B. Maxey, the national president.
In the keynote speech, Maxey declared the United States has "met the reconstruction staunchly and fearlessly."
"We are confronted by an unprecedented situation," he said, "and in a truly American manner are coping with and mastering that situation. The incoming year will bring stability, confidence and progress, the insurers of peace, plenty and happiness. The Progressive Business Club will continue to perform its duty to America and humanity by assisting in the accomplishment of this object."
Purpose of the club to expand and take in every eastern state was announced. Maxey, whose home is here, announced the purpose of the club as altruistic, with friendship as its basis and with its purpose that of civic and community up-building.

and tied up the nations transportation system.

These are the railroad union chiefs who called the strike and mapped out the plan:

W. S. Stone, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; L. E. Shappard, Order of Railway Conductors; W. S. Carter, Brotherhood of Locomotive Fireman and Engineer, and T. C. Cashen, Switchmen's Union of North America. W. G. Lee of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, did not sit in on the sessions as he was not in the city.

The big brotherhoods have the backing of members of the Federated Shop Crafts who are affiliated with the railway department of the American Federation of Labor.

The shop men of which Bert M. Jewell is president, were the first to vote overwhelmingly in favor of a strike but held up their decision pending action of the Brotherhoods. All union men will act together in the crisis, it has been decided by their leaders.

The strike vote was taken in protest against the 12 per cent cut in wages which took place on July 1, on orders of the United States railroad Labor Board.

Since then, however, several men high in the councils of unionism have stated they would not use their powerful club unless another attempt was made to cut wages.

Things moved rapidly to a head following the news that was given out by the unemployment conference in Washington that leaders in the administration favor a reduction in wages so that freight rates may be slashed in an effort to stimulate stagnant business conditions.

These rail executives, leaders of those who went into session here today conferred with President Harding, Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover and other administration leaders in Washington last week: T. Dewitt Cuyler; Samuel Rea; president of the Pennsylvania system; President Smith, of the New York Central; President Holden of the Burlington and Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the board of directors of the Southern Pacific.

Following the conference in Washington came the call for the meeting of railroad executives in Chicago. The executive plan to ask the United States railroad labor board for a 10 per cent cut in wages in addition to the 12 percent that was ordered last July.

The original petition presented to the labor board by W. W. Atterbury, vice president of the Penna asked for a 20 percent cut. This would have brought wages to the level they were before the board granted the big boost in pay in July 1920. The railroad board, however, granted the executives 12 percent instead of the 20 percent asked.

Now, executives want the rest of the cut they asked for and state that unless it is granted many roads will go broke and it will be impossible to cut freight rates for which the farmer and business men all over the country are clamoring.
Executives today were mum on the strike threat of the employees

Flowers and Weeds

In spring as a naturalist remarks, every blossom is a desirable flower. This is the chief reason for the spoliation that makes such havoc with wild flowers near cities and along frequented roads. The contrast with winter's barrenness and colorlessness is so great that people are tempted to foolish excesses.

In autumn the wildflowers attract less attention and are less sought after. And yet there are vastly more of them in evidence in autumn than in spring, and they can better be spared for the plucking. There may not be so great a variety, but there is greater profusion of them; they appear in larger masses and give more glory to the landscape. And some of them are more beautiful than any of the vernal flowers, though regarded as mere weeds.

Autumn is good for tramping too. There is usually a tang in the air that is exhilarating and a coolness that makes exercise a pleasure. In the spring one may enjoy nature at the expense of wet feet and wear-ness. In the fall the quest brings benefit alike to body, mind and soul.

Prepare For a Cold One

An extremely cold winter is predicted—more severe than any we have had for many years past, they say.

If such be the case it would be wise for our home people to make preparation for it in advance, not only that our families may live in comfort, but that live stock and poultry may not suffer.

It is advisable to go over the barns and poultry houses and close up all cracks and holes where the air could drift through, with the exception of the ventilation space, and that should be covered with canvass. A poultry house lined with tar paper would be vastly warmer and the egg yield would be much more satisfactory.

With depressed business conditions prevailing generally it would be the height of folly to allow an extreme winter to render them worse when a little forethought and energy will provide against such a possibility.

Do it before the cold weather comes.

Relieving Unemployment

The Pennsylvania Railroad has recently added 14,000 men to its payroll. They are to be employed in putting idle freight cars in condition for the expected heavier traffic of next winter and spring. The action of the Pennsylvania is not only an effort on the part of the road to assist in President Harding's campaign to reduce unemployment, but it is the natural outcome of the policy of the administration to permit the railroads to fund their equipment debt to the government. The roads have been sorely pressed for money with which to keep up maintenance of way and equipment, and in past months have been obliged to curtail expenditures for that purpose. With needed funds in hand, postponed work of that sort will be rapidly taken up, and much relief to the unemployment situation will result.

George F. Baker, multi-millionaire head of the First National Bank of New York, never played golf or smoked until he was seventy years old. Now, they say, he is a nut at it, as they should after having missed all that fun for seventy years.

Prohibition enforcement agents have appealed to the vaudeville theatres to ban hootch jokes, which would be a great relief to the folks out in front who have to sit and listen to them.

Indianapolis folks should worry their heads about fire prevention since Will Sprinkle has joined the fire department.

The employment conference quit without creating new jobs and we will have to worry along with the same old daily grind until it meets again.

A Gasoline Reunion

(By United Press)

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Whom gasoline bath joined, let no birdie put asunder.

Edward J. Fleming, attorney, was driving through Streator Ills. some years ago in quest of an important witness, when his automobile broke down.

"May I help you?" asked Miss Edith M. Johnson.

And so they were married. The two, according to divorce court records, quarrelled over a golf game a few months ago and a separation suit was started.

Mrs. Fleming today came out of a church and recognized the familiar figure of her estranged husband bending again over his auto.

"May I help you?" she asked. Divorce proceedings are now called off.

Henry Ford Has Option on Tracks From Detroit to Mobile

(By United Press)

New York, Oct. 14.—The possibility of an all Henry Ford railroad extending from Detroit to Mobile was seen here by railroad men in Ford's exclusive statement to the United Press that he had secured an option on the Cincinnati Milford and Blanchester, which gives his Detroit, Toledo and Ironton an entrance to Cincinnati.

If Ford obtains title to the great

Muscle Shoals plant in Northern Alabama, it is believed to be his plan to secure an all Ford direct rail connection between Detroit and Muscle Shoals with an extension to Mobile, which will give the automobile manufacturer a direct line from his plants at Detroit to Tidewater at the gulf tapping his West Virginia coal properties, the Muscle Shoals plant and the Birmingham Iron and Steel districts.

Rheumatism Can Be Cured!

But You Must Clear Your Blood
of Waste Products.

Lack of exercise and improper diet causes waste products to accumulate in the blood. You will at once realize that unless the blood is pure, some part of the body will become diseased.

Rheumatism, with its pain and agony, is one of the most serious diseases caused by waste products in the blood. You know, of course, the blood is not confined alone to the arteries and veins. It passes out of these channels to all parts of the body. This is how sediments or waste products are deposited in the muscles and joints. Genuine relief can be had only by correcting the basic trouble—waste products.

Thousands and thousands of men and women during the past 50 years have cleared their blood of waste products with S. S. S. It is the ideal remedy for rheumatism, because it removes the poisonous waste matter which is causing the trouble. There are no bad after effects and the result is wonderful. Begin taking S. S. S. today and write for 56 page illustrated booklet, "Facts About the Blood"—free.

Personal medical advice, without charge, may also be had by sending a complete description of your case. Address Chief Medical Director, Swift Specific Co., 731 S. S. S. Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga. All good drug stores sell S. S. S.

TIGHTEN UP AS SEASON GOES ON

Football Elevens Begin to Hit The
First of Hard Going in Games
Tomorrow

MANY IMPORTANT GAMES

Every Section of The Country Will
Have Teams in Action Against
Each Other

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Oct. 14.—Getting away from the paved pikes of the early season, the big football elevens begin to hit the first of the hard going tomorrow.

Four interesting intersectional games feature the card in the east while the west will watch with equal attention the first real conflicts of the "Big Ten".

From an intersectional standpoint, the battle between Harvard and Georgia, one of the ranking elevens of the Southern Conference, is the feature game of the day.

The south also will step onto the eastern stage when Tennessee meets Dartmouth at Hanover.

Colors of the middle west will be carried against the east also at Pittsburgh, where Glenn Warner's famed Panthers will play the University of Cincinnati and at West Point, where the Cadets will oppose Wabash.

The biggest and perhaps the hardest fought battle of the day will be between Princeton at the Naval Academy at Annapolis. All the bitterness worked up in last year's battle, when "dirty football" was charged and counter charged by both elevens, has been carried over. The midshipmen would take the same delight in trimming the Tigers that they do in beating the Army.

Yale has a comparatively easy game with Williams, and Penn is expecting no great trouble with Swarthmore. Penn State has a man-sized job with Lehigh, and the Syracuse-Brown game should be anything but a pink-tea engagement.

Ohio State and Minnesota have the banner attraction in the Western Conference. Northwestern and Wisconsin, and Iowa and Illinois will furnish the other banner conference games. Notre Dame will mingle again with a "Big Ten" team by playing Purdue.

No important games are carded in the south. Centre has a soft opponent in St. Xavier's of Cincinnati, and Georgia Tech has the same in Farnham.

PROCEEDS TO GO TO SALVATION ARMY

Tail Lights Will Play Rushville "All Stars" Benefit Game Here
Sunday

ADMISSION TO BE 25 CENTS

Two local baseball teams will engage in a game Sunday, and the entire proceeds will be given over to the Salvation Army. The Tail Lights will use only local players and another team of the best players in Rushville will oppose them at the All Stars.

The Tail Lights will probably have Bramel in the box, and the All Stars will have "Bullets" McCarty on the mound. The line-up of the two teams will probably be known by tomorrow, and a good ball game is promised the fans.

The local Salvation Army is in need of money, and in order to end up the baseball season here with a big crowd, the management decided to turn over the proceeds to that organization, and there will be no expense incurred. It is announced that 25 cents will be the total charge for the game, and all fans are urged to turn out.

SITS ON TOP OF BASE BALL WORLD

After Sixteen Years Back in Second
or Third Row, John J. McGraw
Is Up in Front

269,976 FANS SAW EIGHT GAMES

Regardless of Two Small Crowds,
Series Establishes Attendance
and Receipts Record

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Oct. 14.—After sixteen years back in the second or third row, John J. McGraw sat on the top of the baseball world today.

His Giants were the champions of the world and his triumph was complete.

Young "Erin" Ward and the never failing Roger Peckinpaugh enabled the National League champions to win the World's Series with out an earned run in the two last games.

Ward wobbled in the seventh and paved the way for the Giant victory. The impregnable "Peck" cracked in the pinch yesterday and knocked the props out from under Waite Hoyt's brilliant game.

Judge Landis said today that two more closely matched clubs and two with more fighting spirit never played in a world series, and most of the 269,976 fans who saw the eight games will agree with him.

McGraw said before going into the series that it looked like the limit, meaning nine games, and that pitching would be the edge. Pitching did decide the series. The Yanks were finished yesterday. Had they won behind Hoyt, they would have had no one to start today.

The fallacy of the nine game series was so much brought to light in this series that Judge Landis is going to propose a return to the old standard of seven games.

Players and fans alike were fatigued by eight games here and the feeling was shown yesterday when the big brush stadium was just a little more than half filled. If New York can't pack the Polo stands for a world series, something is missing.

The series regardless of two small crowds, established an attendance and receipts record. The paid attendance for the eight games amounted to $906,233. From 269,976 spectators. This was $177,819 more than the previous record made in 1919 when the Cincinnati Reds and the Chicago White Sox were playing. The attendance was also 18,975 greater.

The Giants, as the winning club, gets $5,265 each and each Yankee will get $3,510. The Cleveland Indians and the Pittsburgh Pirates, second in the two leagues, will divide $43,878 and the two St. Louis clubs which finished third will split $29,252. The advisory board will take $135,034, and the club owners get the balance of $472,675.

The Arlington Athletic Club will meet the strong Greenfield team Sunday afternoon at Arlington, in what is expected to be a hot contest. Arlington never has won a game from Greenfield, but this year held them to a 13 to 6 score, and Sunday they expect to turn the trick and win the game. It is expected that a large crowd will be out to witness the game. Arlington will probably line up as follows: T. Wilcox, c; Hutchinson, rg; Caron, rt; Metsker, re; Gustin, lg; Rhom, lt; Wilson, le; Clarence Northam, lb; Treishman, rf and Chester Northam, fb.

27 to 9 Last Night

PLAY ARLINGTON WEDNESDAY

The high school basketball squad worked out last night with the Webb team, and in the practice game the locals were victorious 27 to 9, and although they are not yet in good form, Coach Sutton expects to have them rounded out within a few weeks so that they will be ready to meet all comers.

Last night the team started off with Headlee at center, Frazee at back guard, Phillips, floor guard and Sparks and Pugh forwards. The team was shifted about several times with Casady and Walker playing forwards, Cartmel at back guard and Stewart at forward. The first half ended 15 to 3.

The high school band is getting into shape and will again be out this season ready to assist in rooting. The first scheduled game of the season will be played Wednesday night with Arlington and on October 28 Valley Mills will play here.

The first string team will be cut down to a few players during the next few practice days.

Football Gossip

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—With two star players out of the game and with an almost completely revised team, it was believed today that Penn's grid squad will have a tough battle here tomorrow with Swarthmore. Bill Grave the star end, and Mike Whitehall, half back and kicker, will sit on the side lines because of injuries.

Cambridge Mass, Oct. 14.—The Harvard football squad will go through a light workout today in preparation for the game tomorrow with the University of Georgia.

The practice today will consist of running through the code signals. A short punting workout also will be held, coaches said.

Four players will not be available for the game tomorrow, Lockwood, Tierney, Field and Crocker having reported on the injured list.

A record crowd is expected to witness the contest, according to the Harvard A. A. which is handling the sale of tickets.

HIGHTOWER FOUND GUILTY

Redwood City, Calif., Oct. 14.—Regardless of what the jury and the public may think, I am innocent," declared William Hightower today in commenting on the action of a jury in convicting him of the murder of the Rev. Father Patrick Heslin. "Yet I knew I was going to be convicted," he added. Hightower will be sentenced tomorrow.

BOY KILLED BY TRUCK

Indianapolis, Oct. 14.—Norman Domroese, 8 years old, died under the wheels of a heavy motor truck here last night. The boy was playing in the street and ran in front of the truck as it turned the corner. The driver failed to stop.

BABY GIRL IS BORN

An 8½ pound baby girl was born this morning to the wife of Charles Todd at their home on North Arthur street. The baby was named Ruth Naomi.

The Young Ladies of the St. Mary's church entertained a number of guests last evening at the church hall with a card party. Eleven tables were in session during the evening. Dainty refreshments of sandwiches and coffee were served.

Mr. E. E. Davis of Orange was hostess for the Social Circle of the M. E. church yesterday afternoon. A very interesting program consisting of musical selections and talks was given. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. Elizabeth Rankin and William E. Taylor both residents of this city, were quietly married Tuesday evening at the St. Paul's M. E. parsonage by the Rev. C. S. Black. The bridegroom is a factory employe of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will reside in West Seventh street.

Honoring her husband's birthday, Mrs. Errol Stoops delightfully entertained a few guests last evening at their home in North Perkins street with a prettily appointed six o'clock dinner party. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Ross and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stoops and son Bryce.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hammer of this city was the scene of a card party Wednesday evening when they entertained the members of the Friday Embroidery Club of Newcastle and their husbands, and four guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pike of Newcastle and Mr. and Mrs. Kelly of this city. Fall flowers were used throughout the rooms and to form the centerpieces for the small tables at which the guests were seated. The delicious menu was served in three courses at seven o'clock. During the evening five hundred furnished the entertainment.

The Center Social club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Omer McDaniel, south of Center, Wednesday and enjoyed a pitch-in supper. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dill of Spiceland, Mr. and Mrs. Batty Newhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Paul McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Owens, Mr. and Mrs. William Reeves and daughters Martha and Kathryn, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wright and son Eldon, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Brooks and son Carlos, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kirkham and daughter Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil McDaniel and daughters Bernadine and Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Whitmores and son, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Stoten and son, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams and son, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Price and son Howard of Knightstown, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil McBride and daughter of Knightstown, Miss Andra Reeves, Miss Hildebreath and Miss Adams, near Brookville, Miss Alice Barnes and Miss Bertha Commaek of Noblesville. The next meeting will be at Mrs. Orville Brooks Wednesday afternoon, October 26.

The Willing Workers of the Christian church of Orange gathered at the home of Mrs. Thomas Matney in Orange yesterday and enjoyed an all day meeting. At noon a bountiful pitch-in dinner was served. The afternoon program consisted of reading a chapter of the Bible; song, "Blest Be the Tie that Binds"; and repeating the Lord's prayer. The members present were Mrs. W. R. Phillips, Mrs. Nelle Davis, Mrs. Kate Bowen, Mrs. Cary Clifford, Mrs. Frank Crist, Mrs. Ida McKee, Mrs. J. F. Ryan, Mrs. Grace Dawson, Mrs. Charles Medd, Mrs. Albert May, Mrs. Howell Pyke, Mrs. Ozro Stevens, Mrs. Lizzie Stevens, Mrs. Ralph Bowen, Mrs. Ernell Beaver, Mrs. Frank Beaver, Mrs. Lora Hitchell, Mrs. Ida Davis, Mrs. E. B. Moore, Mrs. Jennie Brown, Mrs. Will Sipe, Mrs. Will McKee. The visitors were Mrs. Kaler, of Andersonville, Mrs. Hoy, Mrs. Will Miller, Mrs. Walter Mingle, Mrs. Herald Stevens, Mrs. D. C. Morris, Mrs. Wm. Jones, Mrs. John Creek, Miss Nelle Stevens, and Mrs. Wilbur McKee. For the dinner the school teachers were also present as follows: Miss Edna Fieber, Miss Lavonne Scholl, Newell T. Hall, Will Wiley and Frank Hinchman.

Mrs. Eddie Carter has received an announcement of the marriage of Miss Pauline Vorheese of Flora, Ind., to Carlos Eikenberry, which took place at St. Joe, Mich., September 10. They will spend the winter in Florida where Mr. Eikenberry will drive a seaplane. Mr. and Mrs. Eikenberry are both well known here, having visited in Rushville frequently. Mr. Eikenberry piloted an airplane which hauled passengers in this county a few months ago.

IS TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

Mrs. Bert Sadler of Glenwood has been taken to the Robert Long hospital in Indianapolis for treatment of a chronic disease.

FLIERS KILLED IN FALL

Lynn, Mass., Oct. 14.—Edwin Foster, 43, and Fletcher Anderson, 30, were killed here today when an airplane in which they were flying over the Lynn marshes crashed and fell. The right wing of the machine crumpled when it was about 150 feet in the air. Anderson was learning to drive the plane.

AMUSEMENTS

Alice Joyce at the Princess

The contrast between American customs and those of the English is clearly drawn in "Her Lord and Master", the visualization of a famous play which will be shown at the Princess theatre today and Saturday. This contrast furnishes much of the humor in the production and gives Alice Joyce a bit of character development that calls forth great skill.

Miss Joyce has the role of a pampered and spoiled daughter of a wealthy American. Her dotting parents have spoiled her by giving the girl her way in everything. Realizing that this is not good for her, Indiana, the daughter, resolves to marry a man who will be her master and force her to obey his will.

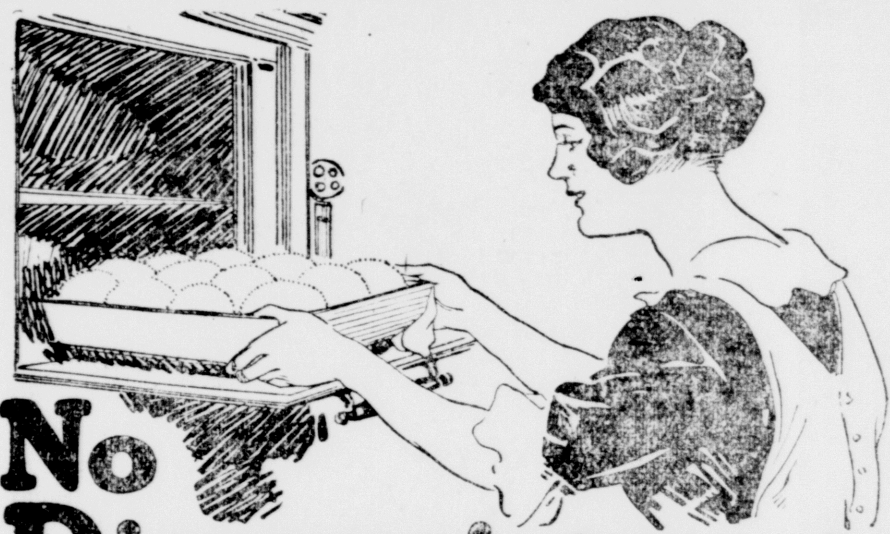

An English nobleman, played by Holmes E. Herbert in masterly style, accepts the task and the couple are married. Indiana is taken to her husband's ancestral home, where she shocks his conservative mother and the friends of the family. Days and months of training follow. Indiana takes anything in good part, and when her parents visit her in England they find a changed girl. It surprises them, and they induce her to disobey her husband. A dramatic scene follows in which Miss Joyce and her leading man vie for honors.

The picture has been capably directed by Edward Jose, who has the reputation of being one of the biggest directors in the business. Certainly "Her Lord and Master" does him credit. Ida Waterman as Lady Canning, Frank Sheridan in the role of Fred Stillwater and John Sutherland as Jennings, the butler, are worthy of special mention.

Bud Duncan at Mystic

Sparkling comedy is cleverly blended with appealing pathos which leads to a dramatic climax in "The Smart Sex", the Universal comedy-drama which is to have its initial showing locally today at the Mystic Theatre. Eva Novak, who made her popularity permanent through her work in "The Torrent" and "Society Secrets", is the featured player of the picture.

As the story opens the girl is seen

No Disappointments

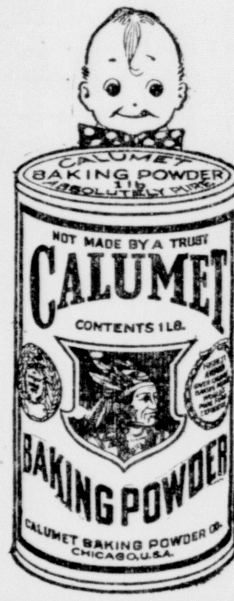

Millions of housewives use Calumet Baking Powder because of its dependability—because when they place their baking in the oven, they know it will "turn out" all right. They are confident of results because they know that no matter what they bake—pies, cakes, biscuits, muffins—the results will be the same—light, perfectly raised, wholesome foods.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

never disappoints. Don't prepare bakings with expensive ingredients and then have them spoiled because of an inferior leavener.

Have the same assurance that the majority of other housewives have.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 ounces. Some baking powders come in 12 ounce instead of 16 ounce cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

trudging up a railroad track with a goose waddling alongside. They are leaving a theatrical company that has become stranded in the country town. From then on the wayfarers are thrown into serio-comic situations which provide for much rich humor. It all ends well and with a concluding twang on the heart-strings which will be pleasing to those for whom romance has an appeal.

"The Smart Sex" was produced at Universal City under the direction of Fred Leroy Granville. Frank Braidwood and Geoffrey Webb appear as Miss Novak's principal masculine supporters, while Mrs. Margaret Mann, the gifted interpreter of mother roles, has one of the leading character parts.

Theatre goers who seek the unusual in screen stories will find in "The Smart Sex" that satisfaction which comes from a skilful presentation of a clever comedy-drama by players admirably suited to their roles.

Bud Duncan of "Ham and Bud" comedy fame, is at the Mystic in person today in connection with the showing of one of his comedies.

Guy Bates Post Coming

The most celebrated play of the decade—"The Masquerader"—with Guy Bates Post comprises a combination never before equalled in the theatres, is coming to Indianapolis, Oct. 17, 18 and 19. This much talked about season's best offering—with the world's tour cast and production, double revolving stages, triple electrical equipment, thematic music, and nine ponderous, pulsating scenes, is commented on by the leading critic of Boston to the extent of two columns. Among other eulogistic comments he says, "Guy Bates Post kept a capacity audience thrilling in response to the clever unfolding of the story of the substitution of John Loder for his cousin, the dissolute John Chilcote, at a time when England stood sorely in need of the brilliant statesman who had become a hopeless drug-addict. The dual role of Mr. Post presents the best character study ever seen on a Boston stage. Where Mansfield, in his transition of Jekyll and Hyde, used various accessories to complete the illusion, Mr. Post relies entirely upon his play of facial expression, manner, bearing and intonation."

"His contrasts between the fine controlled Loder and the brilliant weakling Chilcote, were wonderful examples of detailed study of the two men. Nothing is lacking. Even Chilcote's inability to control the muscles of his face, the indeterminate relaxed mouth, the wavering hands, all were indications of the breaking down through the use of morphia of what had been a most brilliant mind. The sudden transitions from one personality to the other must be severely taxing, for Mr. Post is scarcely absent from the stage throughout the entire play. He is our most remarkable actor. Nothing better in stage efforts has been seen in Boston, and the trice with which the ponderous scenes were transposed bespeaks much for the manner of modern stage-craft as manipulated by that master Richard Walton Tully."

The exchange to be given by the senior class of the Rushville high school Saturday morning at nine o'clock, will be held at Wyatt's furniture store instead of Kramer's meat market as originally announced.

CONFERENCE IS TO MEET CRISIS

Crux of Situation Resulting From Disarmament Conference Narrowed Down Was Japan

DECISION REACHED QUICKLY

Premier of Canada Declared Canada Opposed to Anglo-Japanese Alliance at Premier's Meeting

Editor's Note: Following is the second of a series of articles by A. L. Bradford, of the United Press Washington Staff, dealing with the many important aspects of the forthcoming Washington conference on limitation of armament and Pacific and Far Eastern problems.

Other articles will follow on the naval, military, financial, political and other important and interesting angles of the international conclave.

By A. L. BRADFORD
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

(Copyright, 1921, United Press)
Washington, Oct. 14—In the far-reaching expanses of the Pacific and the Far East may be found the impelling cause that prompted President Harding to call the Washington Disarmament Conference.

To Washington, the world looked for the actual step to bring the powers into conference to discuss means of meeting the demand of peoples everywhere for relief from the burden of maintaining ever-growing war machines.

The conference was not specially planned by the Harding Administration when it came into office.

The conclusion that the time was ripe came upon Hughes suddenly, with a culmination of world events which threw the question up to the United States. A decision to call the conference forthwith was reached and executed swiftly by Harding and Hughes that same day, July 9.

The situation in which the two greatest nations of the world—the United States and Great Britain—found themselves last July, can be summed up briefly as follows:

These two leading powers, bound by natural ties of race, color and speech, were at the cross roads. It was obvious that the plans of the far-away empire of Japan were running counter to the principles and policies of the United States in the Pacific and the Far East. Was Great Britain, for reasons of political and commercial expediency, to continue this situation, and, undoubtedly thereby, aggravate it by pledging herself again in alliance with Japan, and so aligning herself indirectly against the United States in this dangerous situation?

So, the crux of the situation which has resulted in the forthcoming Washington conference, narrowed down from the broad description of "the Pacific and the Far East", was Japan.

The Imperial conference of British Dominion Premiers was meeting in London with the heads of the home government the latter part of June and in the early days of last July. And while there was never any public, confidential, direct or indirect statement to this effect by any administration spokesman, every well-informed newspaper correspondent in Washington knew that the United States government was utterly opposed to a renewal of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance the principal question up for discussion in the Imperial conference.

When the Prime Ministers of the British Dominions went to London for the Imperial conference, Premier Meighen, of Canada, announced in no uncertain terms that Canada was opposed to a renewal of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance, and that in this question Canada's interests lay with those of the United States.

Premier Hughes, of Australia, seemed to favor the Alliance, while Premier Massey, of New Zealand, apparently was wavering between opposition to the Alliance and favoring it. Premier Meighen remained adamant in his opposition to the Alliance. He served notice on the British government that if the Alliance were renewed, he would take the question before the Canadian Parliament. For a Dominion to pass on a high question of Imperial British foreign policy was unheard of, it bordered almost on a declaration of independence and the statesmen of the British government were thrown into a fright.

The interests of the Pacific Dominions were in common with those of the United States in the Pacific and Far Eastern situation. As an example, did they not bar Japanese immigration from their shores as did the United States with even more rigid restrictions?

There is no doubt that high officials of this government were privately gratified at this attitude of the Dominion Premiers, and there is also no doubt that this government not officially, but in fact, was looking to the Dominion Premiers in London to save the situation. The following bit of significant and hitherto unpublished information shows the trend of the American government's opinion in the days just preceding the calling of the Washington conference:

The question of creating a main battleship fleet in the Pacific, by concentrating either all or the most powerful of the American battleships on the west coast, was up for decision by President Harding and his cabinet. Discussing this question with the writer one day, a high official of the government said, in substance:

"I am strongly in favor of this move. It wouldn't be a step directed against Japan, but the question is simply one of insuring one's own house. Anyway, we are looking to the Dominion Premiers in London to protect our interests".

Because of the delicate diplomatic situation, this question is understood to have been passed upon by Secretary Hughes and the Navy Department's plans are believed to have been moderated, so that only the newest and most powerful of the American dreadnaughts, the oil burning types, were sent out to the Pacific coast, to replace the older battleships. But, in effect, a main battleship fleet was regarded here as having been created in the Pacific.

During the meeting of the Imperial conference in London, Secretary Hughes is understood to have made plain to Great Britain, through his conversations here with British Ambassador Geddes and in similar conversations which Ambassador Harvey, acting on instructions from Washington, had in London with leaders of the British government, the feeling of opposition in this country to the Anglo-Japanese Alliance.

Meanwhile, the British government had ruled that the Alliance, in accordance with its terms, was to continue automatically for another year, but there was no decision on its continuance for a future term of years.

Ambassador Harvey had been privately "feeling out" the British government and representatives of other powers on the disarmament question, and soon after the Pacific and Far Eastern situation was being anxiously discussed. The two questions seemed to dovetail into the present conference to be held here on these two great problems.

Later, Lord Curzon, the British Secretary for Foreign Affairs, conferred with Ambassador Harvey, and, recognizing the dilemma of his government, is understood to have declared that Great Britain was ready to have a frank discussion of these questions with the United States. Harvey reported to Secretary Hughes that Great Britain was ready for a conference.

Hughes is understood to have received that cable on the morning of Saturday, July 9. Shortly after, he went to the White House with Harvey's dispatch. The decision to call the conference was reached in an hour's conference with President Harding. Hughes came away and sent his communications to the powers, stating the President was prepared to call a conference on limitation of armament and Pacific and Far Eastern problems, and asking if they would accept a formal invitation. The announcement to the press was made the next day.

FARM SUBSIDY IS SUGGESTED

Advanced as One Means in East of Increasing Production and Lowering Food Prices

FREIGHT RATES ARE BLAMED

Problem Being Considered by Department of Agriculture Which May Make Recommendation

By DAVID BLUMENFELD (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Oct. 14.—The problem of forcing lower food prices in the east is now being considered by experts of the Department of Agriculture, it was learned today.

One cause of present high food prices in the east is high freight rates, which apparently cannot be forced to prewar levels for some time officials said. Their solution is that the east must strive to feed itself more and not depend so much on shipments from the west.

A subsidy for eastern farms in order to encourage farm production has been suggested and is being considered but considerable objection has been raised to it. Some plan may be suggested to Congress.

Officials said it is cheaper to send a barrel of apples from Seattle to London via the Panama Canal than by rail to New York. Meat and cereals can be shipped from the Argentine cheaper than from the Dakotas to the eastern towns.

"The west and south cannot afford to produce enough for the stomachs of the big eastern towns, with freight rates at their present altitude", one official said.

For some time, it was said, the department had been considering the question of the east feeding the east.

"The east fed herself before the civil war—the east will have to feed herself again after the great war" it was said.

"General subsidy of farms cannot come in a moment," said one official. "Months of preparation conferences between states and legislatures must come before any definite and final plans are reached, but, unless the freight charges drop back to normal in the near future, there will be nothing left to save the situation but subsidy for the food producing elements of the east in order that the big towns of the manufacturing districts of the country may buy their foodstuffs at something approaching a pre-war rate."

McIntyre's

Mary Picks 6 Gowns

Paris, Oct. 14.—Six of the smartest and latest Parisian gowns were today selected by Mary Pickford as the first of the trousseau she will take back to the United States.

"And that isn't half of it" she "world's sweetheart" said with a smile.

Leaving husband Douglas behind at the Crillon, Mary motored forth today, on shopping bent.

Mary expressed her views on current styles as the "peacock parade" of mannequins filed past. She herself was already most becomingly gowned in a simple one piece dress of black cloth with black embroidery and no sleeves. She wore a small black toque and a fur neck piece.

"What do you consider the essentials of a well dressed woman?" she was asked.

"Her hair must be well dressed" replied the film star, unhesitatingly. "She must be well shod and have neat fitting stockings. The dressing of the hair is most important."

"I like bobbed hair" Mary said. "It's easier to keep clean."

Mary's choices of gowns today were the most simple, and expensive, creations of Lanvin. She ordered the skirts "medium" shorter than the regulation length.

WONDERFUL CHANGE IN WHOLE FAMILY

Man, Wife and Daughter All Report Remarkable Gains in Weight

"I gained 12 pounds, my wife gained 26 pounds and my daughter is gaining day by day taking Tanlac. It's the biggest surprise of our lives and all our friends and neighbors are talking about it. This medicine has made a wonderful change in every one of us. Before I got Tanlac, I could hardly drag one foot after the other. I had indigestion perfectly awful. In fact we were all regular dyspeptics. We all swear by Tanlac now at our house. It ought to be in every home. It's the world's greatest family medicine."

The above statement was made by George L. Tussy, a well-known and highly respected machinist, living at 83 Dawning St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson Drug Co. and by leading druggists everywhere. Advertisement

EXAMINATION TO BE HELD NOV. 18

Section 5 of State Law Concerning Nurses Provides for Registration of Trained Attendants

MAY BE REGISTERED IN 3 WAYS

Examination Will be Under Supervision of Indiana State Board of Examination of Nurses

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 14—The first examination for Trained Attendants will be held in the state house November 18.

The examination will be under the supervision of the Indiana State Board of Examination and Registration of Nurses, as provided for by the last Legislature.

Section 5 of the laws of Indiana, concerning the examination and registration of nurses, specifically provides for the registration of trained attendants in three ways. One is under the waiver as set forth in this section and the other two are by examination.

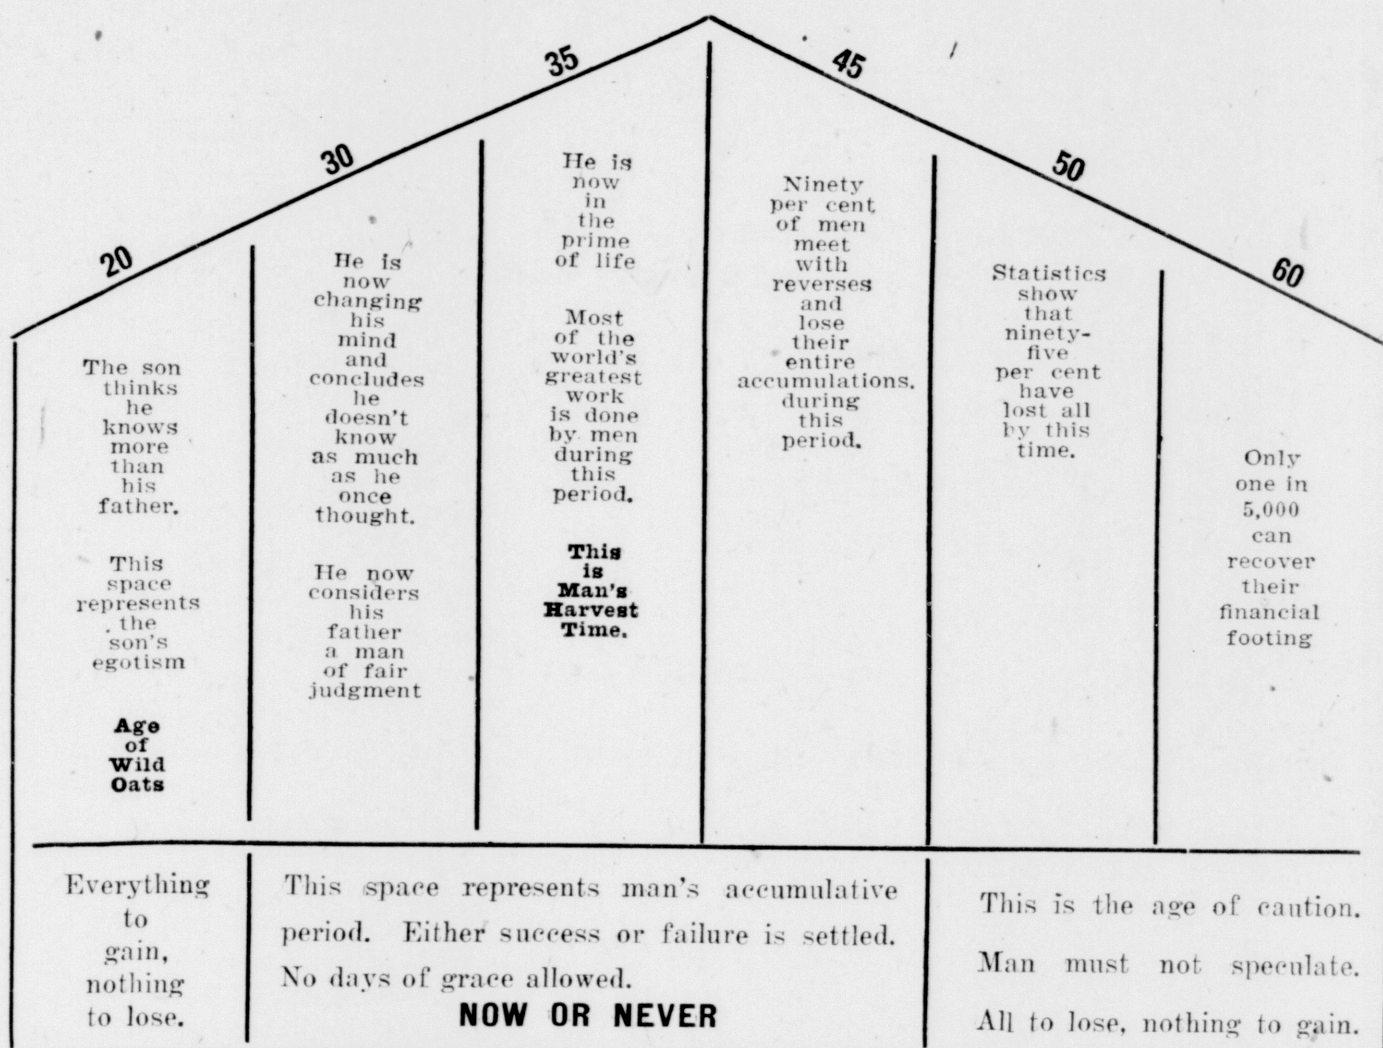

All persons eligible to either of the three plans of registration, should communicate at once with the secretary of the state board, Ida J. McCaslin, R. N. 601 East Noble Street, Lebanon, Indiana, and receive all the information and necessary blanks to file for a certificate.

All applicants who are able to qualify either under the waiver or by examination will be granted a certificate and a pin and will be duly registered by the Indiana State Board of Examination and Registration of Nurses.

Following is section 5 of the Law in full.

After the passage and approval of this act, any person being over the age of 19 years and of good moral character, holding a certificate as having completed the course from a school for training attendants connected with any hospital giving a course of training for attendants of at least 12 months, approved by the state board of examination and registration of nurses as maintaining in this course and other respects proper standards, all of which shall be determined by said state board, and who after a practical examination shall have received from said state board, a certificate of his or her qualifications to care for the sick as a trained attendant, shall be styled and known as a "trained attendant," and no other person shall assume such title, or use the abbreviation "T. A." or any other words, letters, or figures to indicate that the person using the same is a "trained attendant." The said board shall require of each applicant for such examination and registration a fee of five ($5.00) dollars to be paid on or before such examination. Such certificate shall entitle the person to use said abbreviation "T. A." to indicate that such person using the same is a "trained attendant." Said board in issuing a certificate shall also issue a pin with the words "Trained Attendant, Indiana," on the face of it. The pin should be worn at all times when on duty. It shall be unlawful for any person not having been granted a certificate, to use or display said title or initials or pin, and any person making unlawful use of either, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not more than fifty ($50.00) dollars for each offense. All persons engaged in attendance upon the sick at the time this act becomes a law and who have been so engaged for two years prior thereto, said state board shall upon evidence as to the qualifications and fitness of such persons, which shall be furnished by three reputable physicians grant a certificate without examination. All persons who have been so engaged for one year or more and less than two years, shall upon submitting such evidence, be entitled to take the examination for "trained attendants" above provided for. All such persons shall be of good moral character and not less than 19 years of age. The board shall be entitled to require and receive a fee of $5.00 for granting such certificate to "trained attendants." Application for such certificate under this waiver shall be made on or before December 1, 1921. The secretary shall be required to keep a record of the names, addresses, and dates of registration of all persons receiving certificates as "trained attendants" which may be duly registered hereunder. Said register shall be open to the inspection of the public at all reasonable times. Notice of examinations for such "trained attendants" shall be given in the public press not less than 30 days before such examination is held. Written notice shall also be sent by mail, by the secretary of said board to all hospitals maintaining schools for "trained attendants." This act shall not be construed to affect or apply to gratuitous nursing of the sick by friends or members of the family, and also it shall not apply to any person nursing the sick for hire, who does not in any way assume to be a "trained attendant."

Head Tax Put On Pigeons, Geese, Cats

By CARL D. GROAT

Berlin, Oct. 14—If one lives in Germany, he is taxed; if he dies he is likewise taxed. At least, the city of Frankfurt am Main has hit upon the novel idea of charging a tax upon burials: If one drinks mineral water, he is taxed; and if he drinks schnapps he is taxed more.

If one plays a piano at home, there is another tax! and if one wants to hear music in a theater, there is still another tax. The tax on "enjoyment" has had the effect of closing more than 100 movie houses here in the past few months, and has driven every circus out of Germany, either to England, France or Holland.

The latest wrinkle in taxes is reported from Saxony, where a head tax is placed upon pigeons, geese, and cats. The tax on geese has caused much objection, for it has struck at the very heart—or rather stomach—of Germany, since roast goose is the Thanksgiving turkey of the Teuton.

Beer, likewise a great national institution, is heavily laden, and the authorities are planning to tax, as well, vinegar, oxygen, coal, wood and advertising posters.

Income taxes will run very heavy. The Saxon premier, for instance, has a yearly income of 76,500 marks—less than $1,000 at the present exchange—and must pay more than a fourth thereof at once in income taxes.

COMMITTEE WILL MAKE EARLY PLANS

Meeting Tonight to Outline Tentative Arrangements for Corn, Live Stock and Poultry Show.

IS INITIATED BY FARMERS

Following Success of Corn Show Last Year, Agitation is Started for Broadening Its Scope.

Committees will meet tonight at seven o'clock in the county agent's office to make preliminary arrangements for a stock, poultry, corn and home economics show in Rushville this fall. The date will probably be selected tonight. The latter part of November or the first of December is favored.

Following the success of the corn show last year it was deemed advisable to broaden the scope of the event and take in live stock, for which Rush county is famed. The increase in the production of registered hogs in this county was responsible for the movement designed to combine the corn and live stock show.

It is also believed that classes will be made for poultry as this is an industry which has grown rapidly in the county during the past few years under the stimulus of advanced methods, such as the culling of flocks, that has resulted in increased revenue for poultry raisers.

The home economics section of the corn show last year was a very great success and it will undoubtedly be included in the show this year. Women of the county responded in fine fashion and brought out a large showing of bread, butter, cakes and other products of their kitchens.

The movement for a show on a larger scale was started by the Rush County Farmers association, the directors of which have already appropriated $500 as a basis for financing the proposition. The farmers invited Rushville business men to co-operate in giving the show and committees have been appointed from the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs to meet with the farmers committee to start the movement.

The balance of the money required to give the show will be raised, it is presumed by public subscription. Close to $1,500 was posted in prizes last year at the corn show alone.

On account of taking in a wider range, it is regarded as probable that more money will be required this year to finance the proposition. All

STATE HIGHWAY IN BAD STATE OF REPAIR

Many Complaints Made Regarding Condition of Indianapolis Pike By Automobile Drivers

WORST EAST OF ARLINGTON

Automobile drivers who have gone to Indianapolis recently report that the state road between here and the state capital is in a bad state of repair, especially between Rushville and Arlington. The condition of the road has been the cause for much unfavorable comment among Rushville motorists for the last few weeks and it is probable that some complaints will be lodged with Lawrence Lyons, director of the state highway commission unless some work is done on it soon.

It is reported that the road is in its present state of bad repair due to neglect. It is stated that the regular practice of dragging the road after a rain has not been followed, which is largely responsible for the surface of the road becoming bumpy so that no speed can be made with safety in an automobile.

The road is not in the excellent condition that it was during the summer, beyond Arlington, but this is due in many places to the work which is being done in widening the highway. Fences are being moved back in most places in order to make the highway conform with state highway commission requirements as to width.

Elmer Murphy Indicted in Three Counts by Grand Jury

Elmer Murphy was arrested this morning by Sheriff Jones on three grand jury indictments returned by the investigators at their last session. When arraigned he entered a plea to two charges and the third case was nolleed upon motion of the state. He was fined $5 and costs on a charge of public intoxication and $10 and cost on a charge of unlawfully operating an automobile while intoxicated. The indictment charging unlawfully operating a motor vehicle was nolleed.

This arrest accounts for three of the twenty indictments returned, and it is expected that further arrests will be made soon.

CHECKS UP PLANS FOR COUNTY MEET

Odd Fellows Committee Gets Reports Indicating Gathering Wednesday Will be Success.

ARRANGEMENTS BEING MADE

One Thousand Expected to be in Torch Light Parade at Night—Grand Officers Will be Here.

At a meeting of the Odd Fellows county executive committee here last evening, reports were received from each lodge in the county and details of the meeting were discussed. The committeemen expressed themselves as being highly pleased by the reports received, indicating that all the lodges in the county are working hard to make the undertaking a success.

In order to provide entertainment for the Rebekahs and the families of Odd Fellows during the afternoon and after the parade, the Modern Woodman hall has been secured and a committee will be present there to receive and welcome them. A program is being arranged for the evening entertainment and all the Rebekah lodges in the county have been asked to contribute talent for this purpose.

It is also announced that a local church organization will serve supper in anticipation of the large attendance beginning promptly at 5 p. m., so that all may be cared for before the parade.

All the lodges are urging that every member that is able march, and torches have been ordered for one thousand participants, planning for

SUBSCRIBERS FAVOR COUNTRY CLUB SITE

Prompt and Favorable Response Being Made to Letter Sent Out Thursday by Committee

MEETING TUESDAY EVENING

Prompt response is being made to the letters sent out yesterday by a committee of the country club board of directors, seeking to determine whether former subscribers to stock in a club here are still favorable to the proposition.

One member of the committee said today that answers are coming back rapidly and that all of them are to the effect that the agreement made a year ago last August to take stock in a country club at $100 a share, will be lived up to at this time.

A meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock next Tuesday evening in the court house assembly room to determine whether there are enough stock subscribers to insure a successful club, and if so, to adopt by-laws and make plans to start a club at once.

The proposed site, a tract of sixty-one acres one and one-half miles northwest of the city, has met with general approval and is regarded as the best suited for a club and the best located of any to be found in the vicinity of Rushville.

JOINT INSTITUTES WILL BE MONTHLY

First of Series for Teachers of County Will Take Place in Court House Saturday

ON EVERY THIRD SATURDAY

Indiana University and State Normal Instructors Will Conduct Courses All Year

The first of a series of joint township teachers institutes will be held at the court house Saturday, with Indiana university educators as instructors.

The teachers of every township in the county with the exception of Orange and Walker will participate. The institutes will be held the third Saturday of each month during the school year and the rural education course has been arranged so that teachers who wish credit in the state normal for the work covered may obtain it by passing an examination at the end of the course.

The instructors will be Dean H. L. Smith of the school of education, Indiana university; Prof. George E. Schlafer of the department of physical education, Indiana university, and Prof. Frank Senour of the state university English department.

The new plan is a departure from former customs in this county. Heretofore the teachers of the county have met in joint institute only once a year, at the beginning of the school and during the year township institutes have been held.

The group meeting plan will be followed at each session, the following program having been arranged for the first meeting:

Morning Session

9:00 Dean H. L. Smith—Educational Measurements. Class meets in Teachers' Examination room, A. R. Prossman, Chairman.

9:00—Prof. Geo. E. Schlafer—Playground Methods and Management. Class meets in Assembly room, Blythe Seales, Chairman.

9:00—The Classroom Teacher—Dynamic Americanism.

Group meets in Commissioners' Room, W. E. Wagoner, Chairman.

Afternoon Session

1:00 All teachers of 1 or 2 room school meet in Commissioners' room.

1:15 Prof. Frank Senour—English. Class meets in Teachers' Examination room, C. M. DeMunbrum, Chairman.

1:15 Musical Appreciation—Sarah I. McConnell.

Our Living Language.

A Code of Ethics for the Teaching Profession.

Group meets in Assembly room, W. E. Wagoner, Chairman.

The course in "Playground Methods and Management" includes the study of many games, singing and otherwise; also folk games that are suitable both for the school room and the playground. Some theoretical discussion concerning the nature purpose and function of the play, as well as the history of the playground, will be included, and worthwhile school room gymnastic activities will be covered.

The teachers who take the English course under Prof. Senour will have the privilege of designating which of three courses they want—romantic period, Victorian poetry, American literature or nineteenth century prose. This will be determined at the first session and the majority favoring any one subject will decide the question.

Beginning in November, Prof. McBrien, head of the rural education department at Indiana State Normal, will give a course in rural education.

Pear Tree In Bloom

Another freak of nature may be seen in the back yard at the home of Bert Orme in East Third street, where a pear tree is in bloom, with the top blossoms being frost bitten, but the protected blossoms are out in full bloom. Several people in Rush county have reported the second crop of blossoms, including a grapevine which has developed large sized grapes.

ABSENT VOTERS TO VOTE IN ELECTION

Applications Are Now Being Mailed Out to Those People Who Can't Vote in Person

CITY CLERK HAS THE BLANKS

It is Expected That Between 200 and 300 People Will Cast Ballots Through Mail

Absent voters in the city of Rushville are now beginning to make application for ballots, which will be voted upon for the city election to be held November 8, and in a few days the official ballots will be off the Press and ready to be mailed out to those who will not be able to go to the polls on election day.

Blanks for application for absent voters ballots will be mailed upon request by City Clerk Earl E. Osborne, and upon receipt of the application properly filled out, the official ballot will be sent, and it is to be so voted when returned here to Mr. Osborne.

During the primary election last spring, there were 133 people who voted in the election under the provisions of the absent voters law, and it is expected that there will be almost double that amount this fall.

The order for printing the ballots will be given over to the printer in a few days, so that the ballots can be printed and ready for mailing to applicants living at a distance.

Any one who will be absent from Rushville on November 8, is eligible for the absent voters ballots, or any one who cannot go to the polls for any reason on that day, may make application for the ballot in advance, and it will be voted in the proper precinct on election day.

The time for filing petitions, or for withdrawal, or for changes in the list of candidates expired last Saturday, and the board of election commissioners, consisting of City Clerk Earl Osborne, Verne W. Norris representing the Republican party and Guy Mulbarger, the democratic party, will meet in a few days and arrange the ballots for printing.

There will be two city tickets in the field, Republican and Democrat, and each party has a full list of candidates for all of the offices to be voted upon.

FARMER IS FOLLOWED BY MYSTERIOUS DEEDS

Fire of Unknown Origin Destroyed New Home of Wesley York and Stock Was Poisoned

HOME IS IN RUSH COUNTY

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the two story frame dwelling owned and occupied by Wesley York, three miles north of Andersonville Tuesday night about 8:30 o'clock, and the loss which is only partly covered with insurance, will amount to several thousand dollars. The family had left home and the residence was discovered in flames by the neighbors and had gained considerable headway, only a few articles being saved.

The house was comparatively a new one, and Mr. York purchased the farm only six weeks ago. Eighteen bushels of clover seed also was destroyed by the fire.

An investigation may be made into the affair as it is reported that three weeks ago Mr. York lost a valuable horse and a quantity of chickens by feeding poisoned corn. An examination led to the discovery that paris green had been placed in the corn by someone, and the origin of the fire is said to be equally as mysterious.

The farm and dwelling is located in Rush county.

RED MEN TO MEET

The Red Men lodge will meet Monday night next week instead of the regular meeting on Tuesday, on account of the state meeting in Indianapolis being held on Tuesday. All members are asked to remember the change in the meeting night.

IMPROVEMENT IS OBSERVED

U. S. Chamber of Commerce Finds Unemployment Being Wiped Out

(By United Press)

Washington, Oct. 14.—A decided improvement in the industrial situation as compared with the summer period has taken place, the United States Chamber of Commerce announced today.

A number of southern cities reported unemployment wiped out as result of the recent rise in cotton while 119 local chambers in 35 states reported definite steps taken to relieve unemployment.

Following the emergency program mapped out by the unemployment conference, a general movement for splitting time in factories and other steps to help the jobless are under way.

DEFINITE STEPS MADE FOR PEACE

Announcement Made When Sub Committees Reported to Irish Conference Delegates

TODAY'S SESSION IS SHORT

Both Sides Agree it is Futile to Try to Fix Responsibility for Violation of Truce

By ED L. KEEN

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

London, Oct. 14.—Definite progress towards peace has been made by the Irish conference.

This announcement was made today when the sub committees reported to the delegates at 10 Downing street, the result of their conversations yesterday. Arthur Griffith and the other Sinn Fein plenipotentiaries drove to the premiers residence a few minutes before 11 o'clock. Only a small crowd of Irish sympathizers was on hand to greet them. After today's session the work of the conference will consist largely in negotiations between sub committees.

Both sides agreed it was futile to try to fix responsibility for violations of the truce and agreed to center their attention on making the truce effective in the future.

Today's session lasted less than two hours and the delegates adjourned at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The next meeting of the conference was scheduled for 4:30 Monday afternoon Oct. 17. The time was arranged so as not to conflict with the ceremonies incident to the decoration of the unknown warriors tomb by American Ambassador Harvey.

Sinn Fein headquarters explained that the statement attributed to Michael Collins, after yesterday's session, ("We are not coming back") was, if made, "only Mickey's little joke."

The sub committees, it was said today, have made definite progress towards an understanding regarding observance of the truce.

Despite the official optimism, however, it was felt the demand of Sinn Fein for release of the prisoners would cause difficulties before the conference had proceeded much further.

Preliminary discussions, it was said today, might be cleared up by the first of next week, and the practical work of hammering out an amicable Irish solution might be expected to commence Monday or Tuesday.

CLASS ADOPTION PLANNED

Modern Woodmen Make Arrangements For Pig Roast Nov. 17

The Modern Woodmen are making extensive arrangements for the next class adoption which will be held on November 17, at which time a pig roast will also be featured. The "porker" will be donated by William A. Alexander, and it is expected that a large class will be taken into the order on that night.

Work in the Beneficiary degree will be given one candidate at their meeting on next Thursday night, it was also announced today following their meeting of last night.

ULTIMATUM FROM RAILROAD WORKERS

Will Strike October 30 Unless Negotiations on Wages and Working Conditions Are Reopened

DEFY ISSUED TO EXECUTIVES

Railroad Managers, In Session in Chicago, Proceed With Plans to Cut Wages in Face of Strike

Rail Situation At a Glance.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—The railroad crisis at a glance:

Heads of the railroad brotherhoods, the most powerful labor unions in the country have issued a strike call for October 30. The strike will come unless employers reopen negotiations on wages and working conditions. The call was issued after a count of strike votes disclosed that the majority of the 2,000,000 railroad workers were in favor of a walkout.

Railroad executives met in Chicago to recommend that wages be cut approximately 10 percent so that freight rates may be reduced. The decision to ask the United States Labor Board for another cut in wages, in addition to the 12 percent slash effective last July was made in face of the strike vote of the employees.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Rail workers hurled an ultimatum at their employers today by deciding to strike Oct. 30 unless negotiations on wages and working conditions were reopened.

Railroad executives who met here today defied the most powerful labor unions in the nation by proceeding with their plans to slash wages in the face of a strike.

The decision to strike was reached by heads of the railroad brotherhoods early today following days of conference.

According to the plans mapped out by the Union heads, men on all lines will not be called out at once. The nation's transportation system has been divided into ten groups for strike purposes.

Workers on the roads comprising one group will be called out first. Then if the management refuses to confer with men in view of bettering wages and working conditions workers in the next group will be called out and so on down the line until every one of the 2,000,000 union workers have deserted their posts

Wednesday, November 2, Set Aside For Special Effort to Raise Money For Local Corps

HOME SERVICE FUND SHORT

Plans have been devised for a one day campaign Wednesday, November 2, to "clean up" the Salvation Army home service fund in Rush county, which failed to reach the quota assigned to this county by several hundred dollars last May.

The local corps of the Army is in dire need of money with prospects of many calls for relief during the winter. Less than $500 was raised in the home service campaign last spring. This has long since been exhausted in the local work and in addition state headquarters has supplied the Rushville officers with more than $100 to carry on the work here.

Members of the county advisory board met with Envoys Ellis and Ensign Ross Conway of Indianapolis, special efforts secretary, Friday evening and decided to out on a one-day money-raising effort in order to carry the Rushville corps through the winter.

An intensive canvass will be made on that day in Rushville and in the towns of the county. Local workers will have the assistance of several Salvation Army officers who will be brought here for the occasion.

RAIL SHOP MEN WIN A VICTORY

United States Railroad Labor Board
Refuses Plea of Executives For
Piece Work Basis

WORK BY HOUR TO CONTINUE

No Violation of Orders if Employers
and Employees Reach Agreement
For Piece Work

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Railroad shop workers today won a sweeping victory before the United Railroad Labor Board.

The Board handed down a decision refusing to approve of the petition of railroad executives that all shop work be placed on a piece work basis of pay, instead of an hourly rate.

The Northwestern Railroad, acting with other lines had asked for abolishment of the principle of paying straight time for work in shops. It had been one of the most bitterly contested cases before the Labor Board.

The board held the men should be paid on an hourly basis and eight hours shall constitute a work day.

However, if the carriers and the employees agree that the work shall be paid for on a piece basis, it will not be a violation of the board's order.

The board upheld the railroads contention that shop workers should be forced to undergo a physical examination to determine whether or not they are fit to do the work. This also has been a bitterly contested point between the railroads and the unions.

The seniority rights of employees must be upheld, the board announced except in cases where they leave one kind of work on their own request and engage in another class of labor with the same company.

Other rules promulgated by the Board included:

One, two, or three shifts may be used in shops, the starting time and unch time being adjusted by mutual agreement.

Employees working on Sunday, must be allowed to put in a full day unless released at their own request.

Shop trains must be kept in a safe, clean and sanitary conditions and must be run as near schedule time as possible.

MUST NOT DROP NEWBERRY CASE

Administration Leaders in Senate
Notified They Can't Consider
Contest Closed.

TO-FORCE ACTION ON REPORT

BY LAWRENCE MARTIN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Oct. 14.—The Newberry case must not be dropped. This was the notice served today on administration leaders in the senate by a number of progressive Republicans who said they had information indicating that the party leaders counted the celebrated Michigan election case closed.

The progressives, who include Kenyon, Morris, Johnson LaFollette and others, intend to join the democratic senators if necessary to force action in the open senate upon the reports filed by the committee that investigated charges that Newberry spent too much money in getting elected in 1918.

Republican leaders have virtually informed Newberry that the sweeping exoneration he obtained in the majority report of the committee, is about all he need expect in the way of action for a long time at any rate. Democrats, who filed minority reports criticizing Newberry and the committee will seek an opportunity of calling up the reports for discussion and action in the senate.

The republican progressives intend to vote against seating Newberry. There may be enough of them in combination with the democrats, to unseat him, administration leaders realize.

EX-TREASURERS WILL BE SUED

E. J. Brundage, Attorney General,
Prepares Suits For Accounting
In State of Illinois

GOVERNOR SMALL IN LIST

Will be Asked to Make Accounting
For Interest Received on State
Funds During Terms

(By United Press)

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Attorney General Edward J. Brundage today stated he was preparing suits to compel four former Illinois state treasurers to make an accounting for the interest they received on state funds during their terms.

The four are: Governor Len Small, who is under indictment for alleged embezzling of state funds; Lieutenant Governor Sterling also under indictment; Auditor of public accounts Russell and William J. Ryan, Jr. The suits when prepared will be filed in Sangamon county courts.

According to the suits being drawn up, the bondsmen of each of the four former treasurers will be made defendants in the action according to Brundage.

The bills will not stipulate amounts, it was stated, but will be in the form of suits of discovery.

Following the suits if it is found that any of the treasurers failed to account for every penny that was entrusted to them during their incumbency, further action will be taken the attorney general said.

According to Brundages, he was prepared to file their suits some months ago, when he was informed by State Treasurer Edward Miller of the $10,000,000 purchase of Packers notes which led to the indictment of the governor and others on charges of embezzlement.

New York Stocks

New York, Oct. 14.—Threats of a railroad strike Oct. 30, had an immediate effect on the New York stock market.

Rails were unsettled at the opening. Equipments were firm. Most of the oils showed a firm tone during early trading.

Pan American was one exception and was offered in large blocks down to 40 1/2, a new low on the decline. Mexican Petroleum however, was up 1/2 at 92. There seemed to be some profit taking in Cosden. Pacific oil made a new high for the month at 41 1/2, but then sold fractionally. Steels were heavy and Republic made an early low at 48 1/2 off nearly a point net.

After the early decline in steels the whole list hardened. Most of the domestic oils got into new high ground after ten o'clock. Mex Pete recovers above 93. This stock loaned at a premium of 1-16 per cent last night and is loaning flat today. For the first time the dividend was passed, American Chemical showed signs of a weakness selling down to 33. After the dividend was passed the stock had advanced about 10 points.

The list was irregular at the opening of the stock exchange today. Opening prices included: Central Leather 26 3/4 up 1/4; Mexican Pete 92 up 1/4; U. S. Steel 78 1/2 off 1/4; Penna 36 unchanged; Beth B. 53 1/2 off 5/8; American Sugar 53 3/4 off 3/4; Studebaker 71 off 1/4; Republic Iron and Steel 49 1/2 unchanged; Asphalta 53 1/4 off 1/4; Texas Co. 39 1/2 off 1/4; Baldwin 87 unchanged; Sinclair 21 1/2 up 1/4; Pan American 40 1/2 off 3/4; Southern Pac 77 1/2 unchanged.

DEPLORES HARDING LETTER

Sen. Borah Regrets What President
Wrote About Arms Parley.

(By United Press)

Washington, Oct. 14.—President Harding's letter declaring disarmament out of the question at this time, the national enthusiasm over the is an unfortunate attempt to dampen coming international conference, Senator Borah said today.

Borah, author of the original disarmament resolution in the Senate, declared that men were sent to prison during the war for disparaging utterances.

"This conference is more important in some ways than the war," said Borah, and the people should not be led to expect little or nothing of it.

FEUD BREAKS OUT ANEW

Two More Victims, 21 in All, in Rum Runners War

New York, Oct. 14.—New York's bootlegger war blazed out again today with a dozen gunmen on an open hunt for the slayer of "Diamond Joe" Peppe.

Two more victims, making 21 in all, were added to the death list of the rum runners feud yesterday, when Peppe, who had made half a million dollars out of "the trade," was shot to death in "Little Italy" after a running revolver battle. A stray bullet pierced the heart of a bystander.
"Joe Peppe squealed and they got him," was the verdict of his enemies in the Harlem underworld today. The notorious bootleg king had just been released by the police. Peppe had lieutenants and such friends as the underworld allows and they were gunning for his slayer today.

of these things will be worked out by the joint committee.

It is thought that the corn and home economics display will be made in the corridors of the court house, of course, for the live stock and poultry show.

Plans are afoot to make the day really a big one and it is hoped that the committee will have the united support of the whole county.

SIMMONS UNABLE TO RESUME STAND

Imperial Wizard of Ku Klux Klan
Confined to Bed With Severe
Attack of Laryngitis.

INVESTIGATION UNLIKELY

Doubt That Congressional Probe Will
be Ordered Expressed When
House Committee Convenes

Washington, Oct. 14.—Imperial Wizard William Joseph Simmons was unable to resume the stand today before the House rules committee inquiry into the Ku Klux Klan. His physicians said he was suffering from a severe attack of laryngitis and was confined to his bed. Simmons probably will not be able to appear before the committee until Monday.

Doubt that a congressional investigation of the Ku Klux Klan would be ordered was expressed today when the House rules committee convened.

Supporters of the movement to have Congress delve into the affairs and activities of the Klan made a final effort to prove three charges:

- 1.—That the Klan used the mails to defraud.
- 2.—That the Klan had committed overt acts against individuals and incited riots.
- 3.—That the Klan had knowingly evaded income tax payments to the government.

Members of Simmons' party and persons who had assisted in the investigation of the Klan expressed the belief that the evidence presented thus far did not contain the foundation for a probe by congress.

Simmons, whose collapse late yesterday caused postponement of the hearing, admitted that his organization had not paid income taxes. He explained that the $10 paid by each Klansman on joining is a donation and is so designated in all the records. When the income tax law was enacted, he said he conferred with the internal revenue collector in Atlanta and was told his organization was not subject to the act.

"If you gentlemen find we are obligated to the government under this law, we will pay it if it takes our last dollar," he cried.

At another point in his remarks, he said he would destroy the Ku Klux Klan, if the committee thought the organization was not fit to live.

JITNEY BUS DRIVERS HELD

Several Arrested in Muncie For Violating New City Ordinance

(By United Press)

Muncie, Ind., Oct. 14.—Jitney bus drivers who had agreed that one of their number should be made the "goat" and stand arrest and trial for violation of the city ordinance which provides that jitney busses shall not be permitted to operate on streets where there are car lines, were taken by surprise this morning when not only Sumner Denny, the driver who had consented to be the "goat" but several others as well were arrested by the police. The drivers had made up a pool to pay the costs of one man's trial but now all are to appear in court Saturday. In the meantime all of the drivers are continuing to operate their busses while the police declare they will be arrested every day they continue in business.

BOWS TO CONGRESS' WILL

Harding Consents to Commission to Refund Foreign Loans

(By United Press)

Washington, Oct. 14.—President Harding has bowed to the will of congress and has dropped his fight to have congress give Secretary of the Treasury Mellon authority to refund foreign loans. Instead, he said today he would be satisfied with a commission to look after the matter.

In the interest of securing prompt action from congress, Harding has given his sanction to the commission plan, it was announced, and early action is expected from congress.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost every one knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago, the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any druggist for "Wynell's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost. Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.—Advertisement.

HILLSDALE WOMAN TO BE SENTENCED OCT. 21

Mrs. Emma Richardson Burkett, 46, Convicted of Forging Name of Late Col. Roosevelt

JURY RECOMMENDS MERCY

(By United Press) New York, Oct. 14.—Mrs. Emma Richardson Burkett, 46, Hillsdale, Indiana, will be sentenced Oct. 21 for forging the name of the late Colonel Theodore Roosevelt to a $60,000 note, Judge Tully, of General Sessions court said here today.

Mrs. Burkett was confined in a cell in the Tombs today. For the first time since she was arrested the woman broke down. Jail attendants said she wept continuously.

Mrs. Burkett was found guilty by a jury in General Sessions Court. The jury recommended mercy.

Louis Fabricant, attorney for Mrs. Burkett, sought a delay in the hope that he might be able to get Mrs. Burkett's husband and stepson to come east and testify in her behalf. Judge Tully in refusing the request, declared little could be expected of a husband who would leave his wife in jail three months without offering assistance.

ALTRUISTIC CLUB TO SPREAD INTO EAST

Progressive Business Club Opens National Convention at Modesto, California Today

PRESIDENT DELIVERS SPEECH

(By United Press)

Modesto, Cal., Oct. 14.—Promise of "stability, confidence and progress" in business for the incoming year was held out today at the opening session of the national convention of the Progressive Business Club by Roy B. Maxey, the national president.

In the keynote speech, Maxey declared the United States "has met the reconstruction staunchly and fearlessly."

"We are confronted by an unprecedented situation," he said, "and in a truly American manner are coping with and mastering that situation. The incoming year will bring stability, confidence and progress, the insurers of peace, plenty and happiness. The Progressive Business Club will continue to perform its duty to America and humanity by assisting in the accomplishment of this object."

Purpose of the club to expand and take in every eastern state was announced. Maxey, whose home is here, announced the purpose of the club as altruistic, with friendship as its basis and with its purpose that of civic and community upbuilding.

"BURTON HOLMES TRAVELS"

These are the railroad union chiefs who called the strike and mapped out the plan:

W. S. Stone, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; L. E. Shappard, Order of Railway Conductors; W. S. Carter, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineer, and T. C. Cushman, Switchmen's Union of North America. W. G. Lee of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, did not sit in on the sessions as he was not in the city.

The big brotherhoods have the backing of members of the Federated Shop Crafts who are affiliated with the railway department of the American Federation of Labor.

The shop men of which Bert M. Jewell is president, were the first to vote overwhelmingly in favor of a strike but held up their decision pending action of the Brotherhoods. All union men will act together in the crisis, it has been decided by their leaders.

The strike vote was taken in protest against the 12 per cent cut in wages which took place on July 1, on orders of the United States railroad labor board.

Since then, however, several men high in the councils of unionism have stated they would not use their powerful club unless another attempt was made to cut wages.

Things moved rapidly to a head following the news that was given out by the unemployment conference in Washington that leaders in the administration favor a reduction in wages so that freight rates may be slashed in an effort to stimulate stagnant business conditions.

These rail executives, leaders of those who went into session here today conferred with President Harding, Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover and other administration leaders in Washington last week: T. Devitt Cuyler; Samuel Lea; president of the Pennsylvania system; President Smith of the New York Central; President Holden of the Burlington and Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the board of directors of the Southern Pacific.

Following the conference in Washington came the call for the meeting of railroad executives in Chicago. The executive plan to ask the United States railroad labor board for a 10-percent cut in wages in addition to the 12 percent that was ordered last July.

The original petition presented to the labor board by W. W. Atterbury, vice president of the Penna. asked for a 20 percent cut. This would have brought wages to the level they were before the board granted the big boost in pay in July 1920. The railroad board, however, granted the executives 12 percent instead of the 20 percent asked.

Now, executives want the rest of the cut they asked for and state that unless it is granted many roads will go broke and it will be impossible to cut freight rates for which the farmer and business men all over the country are clamoring.

Executives today were mum on the strike threat of the employees

Rheumatism Can Be Cured!

But You Must Clear Your Blood
of Waste Products.

Lack of exercise and improper diet causes waste products to accumulate in the blood. You will at once realize that unless the blood is pure, some part of the body will become diseased.

Rheumatism, with its pain and agony, is one of the most serious diseases caused by waste products in the blood. You know, of course, the blood is not confined alone to the arteries and veins. It passes out of these channels to all parts of the body. This is how sediments or waste products are deposited in the muscles and joints. Genuine relief can be had only by correcting the basic trouble—waste products.

Thousands and thousands of men and women during the past 50 years have cleared their blood of waste products with S. S. S. It is the ideal remedy for rheumatism, because it removes the poisonous waste matter which is causing the trouble. There are no bad after effects and the result is wonderful. Begin taking S. S. S. today and write for 56 page illustrated booklet, "Facts About the Blood"—free.

TIGHTEN UP AS SEASON GOES ON

Football Elevens Begin to Hit The
First of Hard Going in Games
Tomorrow

MANY IMPORTANT GAMES

Every Section of The Country Will
Have Teams in Action Against
Each Other

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
New York, Oct. 14.—Getting away from the paved pikes of the early season, the big football elevens begin to hit the first of the hard going tomorrow.

Four interesting inter-sectional games feature the card in the east while the west will watch with equal attention the first real conflicts of the "Big Ten". From an inter-sectional standpoint, the battle between Harvard and Georgia, one of the ranking elevens of the Southern Conference, is the feature game of the day.

The south also will step onto the eastern stage when Tennessee meets Dartmouth at Hanover. Colors of the midwest will be carried against the east also at Pittsburgh, where Glenn Warner's famed Panthers will play the University of Cincinnati and at West Point, where the Cadets will oppose Wabash.

The biggest and perhaps the hardest fought battle of the day will be between Princeton at the Naval Academy at Annapolis. All the bitterness worked up in last year's battle, when "dirty football" was charged and counter charged by both elevens, has been carried over. The midshipmen would take the same delight in trimming the Tigers that they do in beating the Army.

Yale has a comparatively easy game with Williams, and Penn is expecting no great trouble with Swarthmore. Penn State has a man-sized job with Lehigh, and the Syracuse Brown game should be anything but a pink-tea engagement.

Ohio State and Minnesota have the banner attraction in the Western Conference. Northwestern and Wisconsin, and Iowa and Illinois will furnish the other banner conference games. Notre Dame will mingle again with a "Big Ten" team by playing Purdue.

No important games are carded in the south. Centre has a soft opponent in St. Xavier's of Cincinnati, and Georgia Tech has the same in Farnham.

PROCEEDS TO GO TO SALVATION ARMY

Tail Lights Will Play Rushville "All Stars" Benefit Game Here Sunday

ADMISSION TO BE 25 CENTS

Two local baseball teams will engage in a game Sunday, and the entire proceeds will be given over to the Salvation Army. The Tail Lights will use only local players and another team of the best players in Rushville will oppose them at the All Stars.

The Tail Lights will probably have Brunel in the box, and the All Stars will have "Bullets" McCarty on the mound. The line-up of the two teams will probably be known by tomorrow, and a good ball game is promised the fans.

The local Salvation Army is in need of money, and in order to end up the baseball season here with a big crowd, the management decided to turn over the proceeds to that organization, and there will be no expense incurred. It is announced that 25 cents will be the total charge for the game, and all fans are urged to turn out.

SITS ON TOP OF BASE BALL WORLD

After Sixteen Years Back in Second
or Third Row, John J. McGraw
Is Up in Front

269,976 FANS SAW EIGHT GAMES

Regardless of Two Small Crowds,
Series Establishes Attendance
and Receipts Record

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
New York, Oct. 14.—After sixteen years back in the second or third row, John J. McGraw sat on the top of the baseball world today.

His Giants were the champions of the world and his triumph was complete. Young "Erm" Ward and the never failing Roger Peckinpaugh enabled the National League champions to win the World's Series with out an earned run in the two last games.

Ward wobbled in the seventh and paved the way for the Giant victory. The impregnable "Peck" cracked in the pinch yesterday and knocked the props out from under Waite Hoyt's brilliant game.

Judge Landis said today that two more closely matched clubs and two with more fighting spirit never played in a world series, and most of the 269,976 fans who saw the eight games will agree with him.

McGraw said before going into the series that it looked like the limit, meaning nine games, and that pitching would be the edge. Pitching did decide the series. The Yanks were finished yesterday. Had they won behind Hoyt, they would have had no one to start today.

The fallacy of the nine game series was so much brought to light in this series that Judge Landis is going to propose a return to the old standard of seven games.

Players and fans alike were fatigued by eight games here and the feeling was shown yesterday when the big brush stadium was just a little more than half filled. If New York can't pack the Polo stands for a world series, something is missing.

The series regardless of two small crowds, established an attendance and receipts record. The paid attendance for the eight games amounted to $904,233. From 269,976 spectators. This was $177,819 more than the previous record made in 1919 when the Cincinnati Reds and the Chicago White Sox were playing. The attendance was also 18,075 greater.

The Giants, as the winning club, gets $5,265 each and each Yankee will get $3,510. The Cleveland Indians and the Pittsburgh Pirates, second in the two leagues, will divide $43,878 and the two St. Louis clubs which finished third will split $29,252. The advisory board will take $135,034, and the club owners get the balance of $472,675.

PLAYS GREENFIELD SUNDAY

Arlington Football Team Expects to Turn Tables on Visitors

The Arlington Athletic Club will meet the strong Greenfield team Sunday afternoon at Arlington, in what is expected to be a hot contest. Arlington never has won a game from Greenfield, but this year held them to a 13 to 6 score, and Sunday they expect to turn the trick and win the game. It is expected that a large crowd will be out to witness the game. Arlington will probably line up as follows: T. Wilcoxen, c; Hutchinson, rg; Caren, rt; Melsker, re; Gustlin, lg; Rhom, lt; Wilson, le; Clarence Northam, lb; Treishman, ff and Chester Northam, fb.

BASKETBALL SQUAD HAS PRACTICE GAME

High School Team With Several Players Won From Webb School
27 to 9 Last Night

PLAY ARLINGTON WEDNESDAY

The high school basketball squad worked out last night with the Webb team, and in the practice game the locals were victorious 27 to 9, and although they are not yet in good form, Coach Sutton expects to have them rounded out within a few weeks so that they will be ready to meet all comers.

Last night the team started off with Headlee at center, Franzee at back guard, Phillips, floor guard and Sparks and Pugh forwards. The team was shifted about several times with Casady and Walker playing forwards, Cartmel at back guard and Stewart at forward. The first half ended 15 to 3.

The high school band is getting into shape and will again be out this season ready to assist in rooting. The first scheduled game of the season will be played Wednesday night with Arlington and on October 28 Valley Mills will play here.

The first string team will be out down to a few players during the next few practice days.

Football Gossip

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—With two star players out of the game and with an almost completely revised team, it was believed today that Penn's grid squad will have a tough battle here tomorrow with Swarthmore. Bill Grave the star end, and Mike Whitehall, half back and kicker, will sit on the side lines because of injuries.

Cambridge Mass, Oct. 14.—The Harvard football squad will go through a light workout today in preparation for the game tomorrow with the University of Georgia.

The practice today will consist of running through the code signals. A short punting workout also will be held, coaches said.

Four players will not be available for the game tomorrow, Lockwood, Tierney, Field and Crocker having reported on the injured list.

A record crowd is expected to witness the contest, according to the Harvard A. A. which is handling the sale of tickets.

The Young Ladies of the St. Mary's church entertained a number of guests last evening at the church hall with a card party. Eleven tables were in session during the evening. Dainty refreshments of sandwiches and coffee were served.

Mr. E. E. Davis of Orange was hostess for the Social Circle of the M. E. church yesterday afternoon. A very interesting program consisting of musical selections and talks was given. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. Elizabeth Rankin and William E. Taylor both residents of this city, were quietly married Tuesday evening at the St. Paul's M. E. parsonage by the Rev. C. S. Black. The bridegroom is a factory employe of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will reside in West Seventh street.

Honoring her husband's birthday, Mrs. Errol Stoops delightfully entertained a few guests last evening at their home in North Perkins street with a prettily appointed six o'clock dinner party. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Ross and family and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stoops and son Bryce.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hammer of this city was the scene of a card party Wednesday evening when they entertained the members of the Friday Embroidery Club of Newcastle and their husbands, and four guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pike of Newcastle and Mr. and Mrs. Kelly of this city. Fall flowers were used throughout the rooms and to form the centerpieces for the small tables at which the guests were seated. The delicious menu was served in three courses at seven o'clock. During the evening five hundred furnished the entertainment.

The Center Social club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Omer McDaniel, south of Center, Wednesday and enjoyed a pitch-in supper. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dill of Spiceland, Mr. and Mrs. Barty Newhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Paul McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Owens, Mr. and Mrs. William Reeves and daughters Martha and Kathryn, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wright and son Eldon, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Brooks and son Carlos, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kirkham and daughter Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil McDaniel and daughters Bernadine and Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Whitmores and son, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Stoten and son, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams and son, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Price and son Howard of Knights-town, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil McBride and daughter of Knightstown, Miss Andra Reeves, Miss Hildreath and Miss Adams, near Brookville, Miss Alice Barnes and Miss Bertha Commack of Noblesville. The next meeting will be at Mrs. Orville Brooks Wednesday afternoon, October 26.

The Willing Workers of the Christian church of Orange gathered at the home of Mrs. Thomas Matney in Orange yesterday and enjoyed an all day meeting. At noon a bountiful pitch-in dinner was served. The afternoon program consisted of reading a chapter of the Bible; song, "Blest Be the Tie that Binds"; and repeating the Lord's prayer. The members present were Mrs. W. R. Phillips, Mrs. Nelle Davis, Mrs. Kate Bowen, Mrs. Cary Clifford, Mrs. Frank Crist, Mrs. Ida McKee, Mrs. J. F. Ryan, Mrs. Grace Dawson, Mrs. Charles Medd, Mrs. Albert May, Mrs. Howell Pyke, Mrs. Ozro Stevens, Mrs. Lizzie Stevens, Mrs. Ralph Bowen, Mrs. Ercell Beaver, Mrs. Frank Beaver, Mrs. Lora Hitebell, Mrs. Ida Davis, Mrs. E. Mrs. Bert Sudler of Glenwood has been taken to the Robert Long hospital in Indianapolis for treatment of a chronic disease.

FLIERS KILLED IN FALL

Lynn, Mass., Oct. 14.—Edwin Foster, 43, and Fletcher Anderson, 30, were killed here today when an airplane in which they were flying over the Lynn marshes crashed and fell. The right wing of the machine crumpled when it was about 150 feet in the air. Anderson was learning to drive the plane.

AMUSEMENTS

Alice Joyce at the Princess

The contrast between American customs and those of the English is clearly drawn in "Her Lord and Master", the visualization of a famous play which will be shown at the Princess theatre today and Saturday. This contrast furnishes much of the humor in the production and gives Alice Joyce a bit of character development that calls forth great skill.

Miss Joyce has the role of a pampered and spoiled daughter of a wealthy American. Her doting parents have spoiled her by giving the girl her way in everything. Realizing that this is not good for her, Indiana, the daughter, resolves to marry a man who will be her master and force her to obey his will.

An English nobleman, played by Holmes E. Herbert in masterly style, accepts the task and the couple are married. Indiana is taken to her husband's ancestral home, where she shocks his conservative mother and the friends of the family. Days and months of training follow. Indiana takes anything in good part, and when her parents visit her in England they find a changed girl. It surprises them, and they induce her to disobey her husband. A dramatic scene follows in which Miss Joyce and her leading man vie for honors.

The picture has been capably directed by Edward Jose, who has the reputation of being one of the biggest directors in the business. Certainly "Her Lord and Master" does him credit. Ida Waterman as Lady Canning, Frank Sheridan in the role of Fred Stillwater and John Sutherland as Jennings, the butler, are worthy of special mention.

Bud Duncan at Mystic

Sparkling comedy is cleverly blended with appealing pathos which leads to a dramatic climax in "The Smart Sex", the Universal comedy-drama which is to have its initial showing locally today at the Mystic Theatre. Eva Novak, who made her popularity permanent through her work in "The Torrent" and "Society Secrets", is the featured player of the picture.

As the story opens the girl is seen trudging up a railroad track with a goose waddling alongside. They are leaving a theatrical company that has become stranded in the country town. From then on the waylaiders are thrown into serio-comic situations which provide for much rich humor. It all ends well and with a concluding twang on the heart-strings which will be pleasing to those for whom romance has an appeal.

"The Smart Sex" was produced at Universal City under the direction of Fred Leroy Granville. Frank Briddwood and Geoffrey Webb appear as Miss Novak's principal masculine supporters, while Mrs. Margaret Mann, the gifted interpreter of mother roles, has one of the leading character parts.

Theatre goers who seek the unusual in screen stories will find in "The Smart Sex" that satisfaction which comes from a skillful presentation of a clever comedy-drama by players admirably suited to their roles.

Bud Duncan of "Ham and Bud" comedy fame, is at the Mystic in person today in connection with the showing of one of his comedies.

Guy Bates Post Coming

The most celebrated play of the decade—"The Masquerader" with Guy Bates Post comprises a combination never before equalled in the theatres, is coming to Indianapolis, Oct. 17, 18 and 19. This much talked about season's best offering—with the world's tour cast and production, double revolving stages, triple electrical equipment, thematic music, and nine ponderous, pulsating scenes, is commented on by the leading critic of Boston to the extent of two columns. Among other eulogistic comments he says, "Guy Bates Post kept a capacity audience thrilling in response to the clever unfolding of the story of the substitution of John Loder for his cousin, the dissolute John Chilcote, at a time when England stood sorely in need of the brilliant statesman who had become a hopeless drug-addict. The dual role of Mr. Post presents the best character study ever seen on a Boston stage. Where Mansfield, in his transition of Jekyll and Hyde, used various accessories to complete the illusion, Mr. Post relies entirely upon his play of facial expression, manner, bearing and intonation."

"His contrasts between the fine controlled Loder and the brilliant weakling Chilcote, were wonderful examples of detailed study of the two men. Nothing is lacking. Even Chilcote's inability to control the muscles of his face, the indeterminate relaxed mouth, the wavering hands, all were indications of the breaking down through the use of morphia of what had been a most brilliant mind. The sudden transitions from one personality to the other must be severely taxing, for Mr. Post is scarcely absent from the stage throughout the entire play. He is our most remarkable actor. Nothing better in stage efforts has been seen in Boston, and the price with which the ponderous scenes were transposed bespeaks much for the manner of modern stage-craft as manipulated by that master Richard Walton Tully."

The exchange to be given by the senior class of the Rushville high school Saturday morning at nine o'clock, will be held at Wyatt's furniture store instead of Kramer's meat market as originally announced.

WE WILL ADVISE YOU!
DO I NEED GLASSES?

The layman cannot always tell whether he needs glasses or not. His eyes may have become slightly infected by the injection of some foreign substance or he may have so strained them that all they need is a rest. But if your eyes do cause you any pain or annoyance it is better that you come here and let an experienced optometrist render his verdict. You will not be advised to buy glasses unless you need them.

CONFERENCE IS TO MEET CRISIS

Crux of Situation Resulting From Disarmament Conference Narrowed Down Was Japan

DECISION REACHED QUICKLY

Premier of Canada Declared Canada Opposed to Anglo-Japanese Alliance at Premier's Meeting

Editor's Note: Following is the second of a series of articles by A. L. Bradford, of the United Press Washington Staff, dealing with the many important aspects of the forthcoming Washington conference on limitation of armament and Pacific and Far Eastern problems.

Other articles will follow on the naval, military, financial, political and other important and interesting angles of the international conference.

By A. L. BRADFORD
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
(Copyright, 1921, United Press)
Washington, Oct. 14—In the far-reaching expanses of the Pacific and the Far East may be found the impelling cause that prompted President Harding to call the Washington Disarmament Conference.

To Washington, the world looked for the actual step to bring the powers into conference to discuss means of meeting the demand of peoples everywhere for relief from the burden of maintaining ever-growing war machines.

The conference was not specially planned by the Harding Administration when it came into office.

The conclusion that the time was ripe came upon Hughes suddenly, with a culmination of world events which threw the question up to the United States. A decision to call the conference forthwith was reached and executed swiftly by Harding and Hughes that same day, July 9.

The situation in which the two greatest nations of the world—the United States and Great Britain—found themselves last July, can be summed up briefly as follows:

These two leading powers, bound by natural ties of race, color and speech, were at the cross roads. It was obvious that the plans of the far-away empire of Japan were running counter to the principles and policies of the United States in the Pacific and the Far East. Was Great Britain, for reasons of political and commercial expediency, to continue this situation, and, undoubtedly thereby, aggravate it by pledging herself again in alliance with Japan, and so aligning herself indirectly against the United States in this dangerous situation?

So, the crux of the situation which has resulted in the forthcoming Washington conference, narrowed down from the broad description of "the Pacific and the Far East," was Japan.

The Imperial conference of British Dominion Premiers was meeting in London with the heads of the home government the latter part of June and in the early days of last July. And while there was never any public, confidential, direct or indirect statement to this effect by any administration spokesman, every well-informed newspaper correspondent in Washington knew that the United States government was utterly opposed to a renewal of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance the principal question up for discussion in the Imperial conference.

When the Prime Ministers of the British Dominions went to London for the Imperial conference, Premier Meighen, of Canada, announced in no uncertain terms that Canada was opposed to a renewal of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance, and that in this question Canada's interests lay with those of the United States.

Premier Hughes, of Australia, seemed to favor the Alliance, while Premier Massey, of New Zealand, apparently was wavering between opposition to the Alliance and favoring it. Premier Meighen remained adamant in his opposition to the Alliance. He sawed notice on the British government that if the Alliance were renewed, he would take the question before the Canadian Parliament. For a Dominion to pass on a high question of Imperial British foreign policy was unheard of, it bordered almost on a declaration of independence and the statesmen of the British government were thrown into a fright.

The interests of the Pacific Dominions were in common with those of the United States in the Pacific and Far Eastern situation. As an example, did they not bar Japanese immigration from their shores as did the United States with even more rigid restrictions?

There is no doubt that high officials of this government were privately gratified at this attitude of the Dominion Premiers, and there is also no doubt that this government not officially, but in fact, was looking to the Dominion Premiers in London to save the situation. The following bit of significant and hitherto unpublished information shows the trend of the American government's opinion in the days just preceding the calling of the Washington conference:

The question of creating a main battleship fleet in the Pacific, by concentrating either all or the most powerful of the American battleships on the west coast, was up for decision by President Harding and his cabinet. Discussing this question with the writer one day, a high official of the government said, in substance:

"I am strongly in favor of this move. It wouldn't be a step directed against Japan, but the question is simply one of insuring one's own house. Anyway, we are looking to the Dominion Premiers in London to protect our interests."

Because of the delicate diplomatic situation, this question is understood to have been passed upon by Secretary Hughes and the Navy Department's plans are believed to have been moderated, so that only the newest and most powerful of the American dreadnaughts, the oil burning types, were sent out to the Pacific coast, to replace the older battleships. But, in effect, a main battleship fleet was regarded here as having been created in the Pacific.

During the meeting of the Imperial conference in London, Secretary Hughes is understood to have made plain to Great Britain, through his conversations here with British Ambassador Goddes and in similar conversations which Ambassador Harvey, acting on instructions from Washington, had in London with leaders of the British government, the feeling of opposition in this country to the Anglo-Japanese Alliance.

Meanwhile, the British government had ruled that the Alliance, in accordance with its terms, was to continue automatically for another year, but there was no decision on its continuance for a future term of years.

Ambassador Harvey had been privately "feeling out" the British government and representatives of other powers on the disarmament question, and soon after the Pacific and Far Eastern situation was being anxiously discussed. The two questions seemed to dovetail into the present conference to be held here on these two great problems.

Later, Lord Curzon, the British Secretary for Foreign Affairs, conferred with Ambassador Harvey, and, recognizing the dilemma of his government, is understood to have declared that Great Britain was ready to have a frank discussion of these questions with the United States. Harvey reported to Secretary Hughes that Great Britain was ready for a conference.

Hughes is understood to have received that cable on the morning of Saturday, July 9. Shortly after, he went to the White House with Harvey's dispatch. The decision to call the conference was reached in an hour's conference with President Harding. Hughes came away and sent his communications to the powers, stating the President was prepared to call a conference on limitation of armament and Pacific and Far Eastern problems, and asking if they would accept a formal invitation. The announcement to the press was made the next day.

FARM SUBSIDY IS SUGGESTED

Advanced as One Means in East of Increasing Production and Lowering Food Prices

FREIGHT RATES ARE BLAMED

Problem Being Considered by Department of Agriculture Which May Make Recommendation

By DAVID BLUMENTHIELD
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Oct. 14.—The problem of forcing lower food prices in the east is now being considered by experts of the Department of Agriculture, it was learned today.

One cause of present high food prices in the east is high freight rates, which apparently cannot be forced to prewar levels for some time officials said. Their solution is that the east must strive to feed itself more and not depend so much on shipments from the west.

A subsidy for eastern farms in order to encourage farm production has been suggested and is being considered but considerable objection has been raised to it. Some plan may be suggested to Congress.

Officials said it is cheaper to send a barrel of apples from Seattle to London via the Panama Canal than by rail to New York. Meat and cereals can be shipped from the Argentine cheaper than from the Dakotas to the eastern towns.

"The west and south cannot afford to produce enough for the stomachs of the big eastern towns, with freight rates at their present altitude," one official said.

For some time, it was said, the department had been considering the question of the east feeding the east.

"The east fed herself before the civil war—the east will have to feed herself again after the great war" it was said.

"General subsidy of farms cannot come in a moment," said one official. "Months of preparation conferences between states and legislatures must come before any definite and final plans are reached, but, unless the freight charges drop back to normal in the near future, which is practically impossible, there will be nothing left to save the situation but subsidy for the food producing elements of the east in order that the big towns of the manufacturing districts of the country may buy their foodstuffs at something approaching a pre-war rate."

Mary Picks 6 Gowns

Paris, Oct. 14.—Six of the smartest and latest Parisian gowns were today selected by Mary Pickford as the first of the trousseau she will take back to the United States.

"And that isn't half of it," she "world's sweetheart" said, with a smile.

Leaving husband Douglas behind at the Crillon, Mary motored forth today, on shopping bent.

Mary expressed her views on current styles as the "peacock parade" of mannekins filed past. She herself was already most becomingly gowned in a simple one piece dress of black cloth, with black embroidery and no sleeves. She wore a small black toque and a fur neck piece.

"What do you consider the essentials of a well dressed woman?" she was asked.

"Her hair must be well dressed," replied the film star, unhesitatingly. "She must be well shod and have neat fitting stockings. The dressing of the hair is most important."

"I like bobbed hair," Mary said. "It's easier to keep clean."

Mary's choices of gowns today were the most simple, and expensive, creations of Lanvin. She ordered the skirts "medium" shorter than the regulation length.

WONDERFUL CHANGE IN WHOLE FAMILY

Man, Wife and Daughter All Report Remarkable Gains In Weight

"I gained 12 pounds, my wife gained 26 pounds and my daughter is gaining day by day taking Taulac. It's the biggest surprise of our lives and all our friends and neighbors are talking about it. This medicine has made a wonderful change in every one of us. Before I got Taulac, I could hardly drag one foot after the other. I had indigestion perfectly awful. In fact we were all regular dyspeptics. We all swear by Taulac now at our house. It ought to be in every home. It's the world's greatest family medicine."

The above statement was made by George L. Tenny, a well-known and highly respected machinist, living at 83 Dawning St., Buffalo, N. Y. Taulac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson Drug Co. and by leading druggists everywhere. Advertisement do not realize that a corroded or dirty carburetor is often the cause of the loss of "pep" in their cars, which annoys them so much. Yet this is a very vital fact.

LOSS OF PEP

Many Motorists

The carburetor is very delicate and must be clean at all times and properly adjusted, otherwise your engine WILL NOT RUN SMOOTHLY.

Carburetor work receives special attention at this garage. It means better service from your car and greater enjoyment for yourself.

EXAMINATION TO BE HELD NOV. 18

Section 5 of State Law Concerning Nurses Provides for Registration of Trained Attendants

MAY BE REGISTERED IN 3 WAYS

Examination Will be Under Supervision of Indiana State Board of Examination of Nurses.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 14—The first examination for Trained Attendants will be held in the state house November 18.

The examination will be under the supervision of the Indiana State Board of Examination and Registration of Nurses, as provided for by the last Legislature.

Section 5 of the laws of Indiana, concerning the examination and registration of nurses, specifically provides for the registration of trained attendants in three ways: One is under the waiver as set forth in this section and the other two are by examination.

All persons eligible to either of the three plans of registration, should communicate at once with the secretary of the state board, Ida J. McCaslin, R. N. 601 East Noble Street, Lebanon, Indiana, and receive all the information and necessary blanks to file for a certificate.

All applicants who are able to qualify either under the waiver or by examination will be granted a certificate and a pin and will be duly registered by the Indiana State Board of Examination and Registration of Nurses.

Following is section 5 of the Law in full.

After the passage and approval of this act, any person being over the age of 19 years and of good moral character, holding a certificate as having completed the course from a school for training attendants connected with any hospital giving a course of training for attendants of at least 12 months, approved by the state board of examination and registration of nurses as maintaining in this course and other respects proper standards, all of which shall be determined by said state board, and who after a practical examination shall have received from said state board, a certificate of his or her qualifications to care for the sick as a trained attendant, shall be styled and known as a "trained attendant," and no other person shall assume such title, or use the abbreviation "T. A." or any other words, letters, or figures to indicate that the person using the same is a "trained attendant." The said board shall require of each applicant for such examination and registration a fee of five ($5.00) dollars to be paid on or before such examination. Such certificate shall entitle the person to use said abbreviation "T. A." to indicate that such person using the same is a "trained attendant." Said board in issuing a certificate shall also issue a pin with the words "Trained Attendant, Indiana," on the face of it. The pin should be worn at all times when on duty. It shall be unlawful for any person not having been granted a certificate, to use or display said title or initials or pin, and any person making unlawful use of either, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not more than fifty ($50.00) dollars for each offense. All persons engaged in attendance upon the sick at the time this act becomes a law and who have been so engaged for two years prior thereto, said state board shall upon evidence as to the qualifications and fitness of such persons, which shall be furnished by three reputable physicians grant a certificate without examination. All persons who have been so engaged for one year or more and less than two years, shall upon submitting such evidence, be entitled to take the examination for "trained attendants" above provided for. All such persons shall be of good moral character and not less than 19 years of age. The board shall be entitled to require and receive a fee of $5.00 for granting such certificate to "trained attendants." Application for such certificate under this waiver shall be made on or before December 1, 1921. The secretary shall be required to keep a record of the names, addresses, and dates of registration of all persons receiving certificates as "trained attendants" which may be duly registered hereunder. Said register shall be open to the inspection of the public at all reasonable times. Notice of examinations for such "trained attendants" shall be given in the public press not less than 30 days before such examination is held. Written notice shall also be sent by mail, by the secretary of said board to all hospitals maintaining schools for "trained attendants." This act shall not be construed to affect or apply to gratuitous nursing of the sick by friends or members of the family, and also it shall not apply to any person nursing the sick for hire, who does not in any way assume to be a "trained attendant."

Head Tax Put On Pigeons, Geese, Cats

By CARL D. GROAT

Berlin, Oct. 14—If one lives in Germany, he is taxed; if he dies he is likewise taxed. At least, the city of Frankfurt am Main has hit upon the novel idea of charging a tax upon burials: If one drinks mineral water, he is taxed; and if he drinks Schnapps he is taxed more.

If one plays a piano at home, there is another tax; and if one wants to hear music in a theater, there is still another tax. The tax on "enjoyment" has had the effect of closing more than 100 movie houses here in the past few months, and has driven every circus out of Germany, either to England, France or Holland.

The latest wrinkle in taxes is reported from Saxony, where a head tax is placed upon pigeons, geese, and cats. The tax on geese has caused much objection, for it has struck at the very heart—or rather stomach—of Germany, since roast goose is the Thanksgiving turkey of the Teuton.

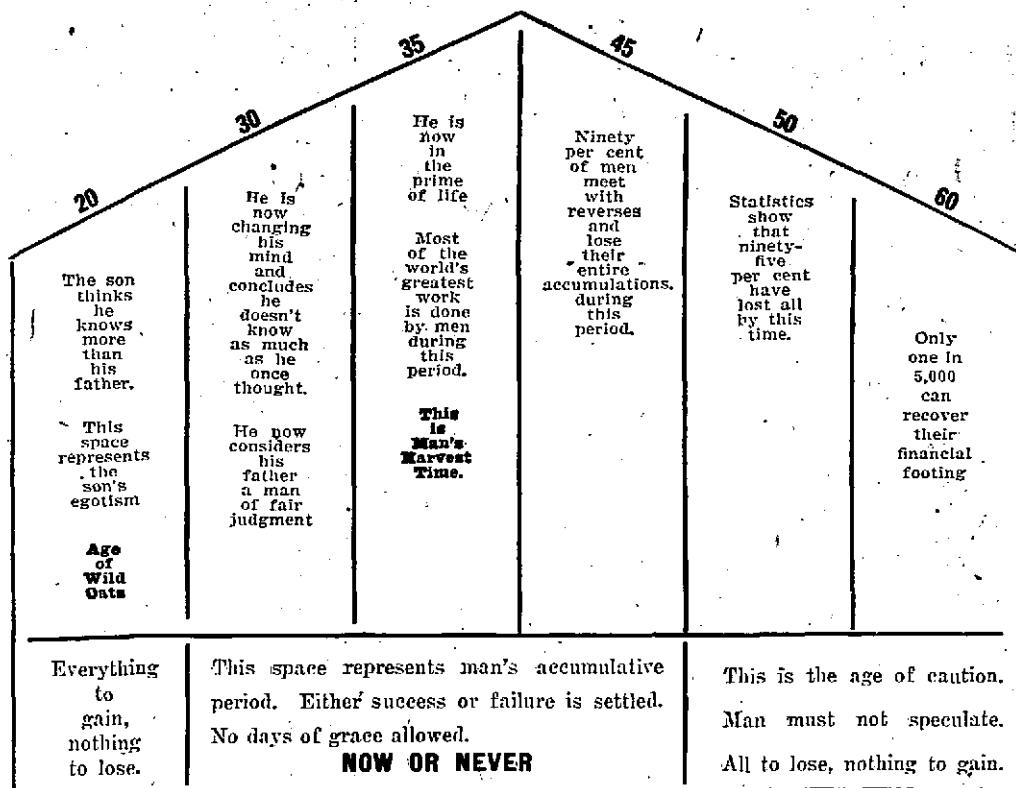

Beer, likewise a great national institution, is heavily laden, and the authorities are planning to tax, as well, vinegar, oxygen, coal, wood and advertising posters.

Income taxes will run very heavy. The Saxon premier, for instance, has a yearly income of 76,500 marks—less than $1,000 at the present exchange—and must pay more than a fourth thereof at once in income taxes.
